

FACELESS AND LOST

“Remember Lot’s wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.” –Jesus, Luke 17

“Feelings are going to get hurt.” –Michael

A blogger I’m familiar with who was an outspoken “anti-masker” has recently changed his position. An introspective and a thinking man, he’s concluded that the mask issue isn’t his hill to die on. We all need to buy groceries and other essentials which are (regrettably) only available from corporate retail stores. These are now universally demanding “masking” from their patrons, and, as a self-confessed ‘libertarian’, he feels he must abide by their requirements for entry... Respect for private property and all that. Furthermore, he’d like to still participate in whatever semblance of society remains, such as having lunch at his favorite bistro or attending a sports tball event (if those still occur). These all require the “mask” and to buck them necessarily invites the ire and the reproach of the compliant others, and even unhinged rage and threatenings from both the customers and employees alike. Anyway, it besmears their outing; it ruins their pleasant shopping experience, which they have a right to, and it causes unnecessary consternation and fear from those who have bought into the fear. Thus he will now diaper his face when asked to. After all, “it’s just a mask”.

But this otherwise very intelligent man knows where all this is leading. He’s expounded upon it—he’s preached against it for long before the plandemic was hatched. He’s well aware of the end game and that we’re now in it. What his thoughts are on the future (and likelihood) of his “libertarian” ideal for at least his own private Idaho, I’ve no idea. Because he must know that they aren’t going to let any of us just walk away from the party. There will be no amicable divorce—no departing in peace, no equitable distribution of the assets. The NAP is not recognized by the hordes. The NAP, moreover, is a figment of his still childish imagination. Going along to get along will only end in accepting the chains they will set upon you—if only they will set them lightly.

Most people who have initially rebelled against this madness will end like this man. This is a sad fact of our humanity. It is the norm of the vast majority to look back after once setting their hand upon the plow. That of Lot’s wife would likely be the fate of most wives today given similar circumstances—and most men as well. Even among Christians, how many soon have the Word choked out of them by the thorny weeds of this world, or else abandon it like an old doll when abundance and pleasure becomes unexpectedly available.

For this and other reasons, I refuse to accept the “new norm”. Yet, I accept that I will never return to the old life I knew; the America of my childhood is now dead and gone, along with the foolish hope that a few good men in white hats will soon “turn this thing around” in some political revival. Friends, that is a pornographic JOKE that we should not entertain nor smile at. God is not smiling, I can assure you.

That this nation has become depraved and godless and is now headed for the abyss is a foregone conclusion. But the Kingdom of God ever advances. And His people, and His Name will never be crushed. It will continue on in another nation, perhaps one formed in the very place where you now live. If we are ever to be a part of that once and future kingdom upon this earth, we will have to STAND for it. We may have to die for it. Some no doubt will. But the majority will inevitably suffer some indignities...the loss of friends, the loss of family, the loss of jobs, the loss of wealth and property—at least temporarily. But the cause is far more important than our personal contentment in this world. The TRUTH is what only matters. And what we stand to gain for winning this battle is of infinite magnitude greater than the loss (Matthew 19:29).

Therefore, I will not participate in their delusion. Because it's not merely a delusion—it's a LIE. I would be bearing false witness if I knowingly perpetuated a lie against my neighbor. Aiding and abetting the State and the globalist actors behind it in their campaign of mass psychological terrorism is simply something I, as a Christian, cannot do. The actions of the "order-givers" are tyrannical, ignorant, deliberately counterproductive, intended to promote anti-social behavior, societal disorder and ultimately the destruction of our civilization... For the intended and confessed purpose of rebuilding it in the new globalist image. Again, none of this is hidden; all has been openly described since at least 1992 beginning with the "Earth Summit" known as Agenda 21 and the later, and even more diabolical, Agenda 2030 of just five years ago. It is an open conspiracy if there ever was one and it's world-wide. The following is an excerpt from the Agenda 2030 guidelines. Pay attention to the fact that every term is being used in the exact inversion of the 'normal' meaning.

"We envisage a world of universal respect for human rights and human dignity, the rule of law, justice, equality and non-discrimination; of respect for race, ethnicity and cultural diversity; and of equal opportunity permitting the full realization of human potential and contributing to shared prosperity. A world which invests in its children and in which every child grows up free from violence and exploitation. A world in which every woman and girl enjoys full gender equality and all legal, social and economic barriers to their empowerment have been removed. A just, equitable, tolerant, open and socially inclusive world in which the needs of the most vulnerable are met."

What mendacity! Whose law? Whose justice? What human rights, or so-called dignity? What equality? What is meant by "tolerance for an open and socially inclusive world"? Does anyone imagine these are defined the way our fathers did? Is anyone so naïve to believe these are Christian values being espoused? Is this not perfect double-speak? Of course, we KNOW what was meant by their "socially inclusive world," now that same-sex "marriages" are the law of the land, and cross-dressing, bearded men in sundresses and clown makeup are reading books to children at library story-times. "Human dignity" to them means tolerance for indignity—the promotion and glorification of homosexuality, transsexualism, and the fetishizing of young children. "Diversity" means breeding out the races through miscegeny and even rape, propagated through the deliberate destruction of borders and forced integration of wildly divergent people groups.

The silly solipsism of Lennon's song, "Imagine there's no heaven..." has metastasized into Huxley's Brave New World. And it was as predictable as it is sickening. Now indeed, "WE Envisage A World"... A world in which YOU will be either cowed and tagged, or culled. Because as George Carlin famously said, "it's a great big Club, and YOU ain't in it."

Are we waking up yet? The lie of this "pandemic" was deviously planned. The economic catastrophe the State has set in motion with their "reaction" to this so-called virus was likewise staged. As I mentioned before (and now is common knowledge), Bill Gates and friends literally gamed this very scenario—in explicit detail—last fall with their Event 201. What has now followed this "thought experiment" is either the most amazing geopolitical coincidence of the ages, or else it is exactly what it appears... The Mother of All Psyops.

Summing it up, an anonymous commenter on a blog site succinctly said it thusly, and I quote in part:

1. Whereas the globalists have been outspoken for decades that they plan a technocratic society, the "new normal" aligns very closely to their goals for human management. AI driven workplaces and education, use of advanced technology to monitor and control personal behavior, and limits on where people can or cannot travel or visit, including immediate family members and including criminal consequences for those who don't adapt to the new rules.
2. The rules regarding masking, social distancing, house arrests, and travel restrictions are all aspects that can easily be associated to an assimilation program towards "normalizing" behaviors that will become conditionings of the rapidly emerging technocracy that will be implemented in the next 12-24 months as part of the global economic reset. New ways of doing things. New ways of associating with people. New ways of working, learning, and thinking. A completely different and authoritarian approach to life, on a global scale. This is why the cultural revolution is taking place simultaneously – to scrub history and start anew. A new normal.

"The new normal" ...Will we ever be spared this slogan? Or will it always be 'new'? Don't miss the warning of "criminal consequences" for the non-compliant—already here. Right now we're just being gummed by the lion cubs with their toothless 'illegal' ordinances, but soon enough they'll be statutory and they'll grind us with therewith.

Now to get down and dirty... The intent of the mask is to be a shibboleth. To begin with, it's inherently divisive as it easily marks the initiated and separates them from the unbelievers. People may, if they choose, keep their beliefs and their fealties private—but not if they're literally required to wear them on their faces. Therefore it also serves as the "pinch of incense for Caesar". The consequences for the defiant—for now—are still relatively minor...So far as I know, there haven't been any crucifixions of the bare-faced in the Walmart parking lots (yet). However there have been beatings, stabbings, and arrests of the un-diapered.

But make no mistake, this Masquerade party will soon lead to more heinous demands, beginning with a digital ID "passport" (already rolling out) to permit travel, employment, and commerce (such as entering a store or eating at a restaurant). The much anticipated and loathed "vaccine" comes next—maybe.

Seems the puppet masters can't quite make up their minds as to whether a vaccine is at all possible or whether it suits them better to leave the masses in perpetual fear and lockdown without the prophylactic. However, I'm betting on mandatory vaccinations linked to the "passport" or a "quantum dot tattoo". All of this will be rolled up and forced upon the unwilling with the final unveiling of the universal cashless economy—a digitized (blockchain) monetary system and the subsequent criminalization of all rival forms of transaction. What would any of us use for money anyway once this is done? "Patriots" will just be marginalized and ignored. Forced into poverty, the new class of "barter-tards" will be slowly starved into submission anyway.

If the Agenda then is total, all-encompassing tyranny, why the mask? Why the push for such a ridiculous and irrelevant mandate when so much more—of much greater consequence—is planned? Why does it matter that we cover our faces when we are well, or "quarantine" when we are healthy, or stand the magic six feet apart regardless, if these are such insignificant factors in the overall scheme?

The wearing of the mask is cultish genuflecting. That is all. It is an act of theater for the devoted and for the fearful. Some of our "health ambassadors", in a moment of frankness, have let it slip that the mask is really just a pacifier to calm the neurotic, admitting, as they have, that no medical benefit exists at all. And I agree with them—but that's not the main intent. Covering the face with a cloth does nothing to hinder the spread of any purported virus, real or imaginary; its purpose is submission, not unlike the niqab of the religion of Islam, which (ironically) also means "Submission."

In the occult, the wearing of the mask is an emblem of submission. It is well known that the ancient mystery religions engaged in this as part of their debaucheries (and referenced in the Bible—Old and New Testaments). Paul's account in Acts 19 at the Temple Of Diana is one example. For the naïve and squeamish, a sanitized account of the Greek orgia and the goings-on of Dionysian temple worship is found here. Modern versions of these debaucheries are routinely practiced among the elite today in their peculiar "parties" (let the mature reader do his own research here, as it's too filthy to discuss—but it's not a secret—Stanley Kubrick in fact made a very base, yet very truthful film about it called 'Eyes wide Shut').

There is nothing new under the sun.

All of this is obvious conditioning for the transition into the "new reality". The Brave New World—the predictive programming of the past 100 years is now upon us. Understood or not, the wearing of the mask is nothing but the psychological signaling of your consent to this new order.

Seattle City Councilwoman and foreign plant, Kshama Sawant recently had this to say:

"We are coming to dismantle this deeply oppressive, racist, sexist, utterly bankrupt system of capitalism. We cannot and will not stop until it is dismantled, and we replace it with a socialist world, based on solidarity, genuine democracy, and equality."

The woman is an obvious tool, but coming on the heels of the "novel coronavirus" hoax, we do well to be highly suspicious of the "George Floyd" riots. What is occurring in the cities of the North West is nothing less than a “novel” Bolshevism. It was a setup. The virus was a setup. And “the action is the reaction”. The masked rioters are using the “pandemic” as a cover for the real plan just as they are using the fake cause of the mask to conceal their identity during their felonious activities.

The mask is no doubt part of a greater initiation into this new Death Cult, and with each new ritual of obedience will come privileges for the initiates—and sanctions for the refusniks. This will enlarge the division, wreck families, and further isolate the moralists—as it is meant to. Thus, the defiant can turn around now, while the way back is still easy, and we still have our jobs, and our wives, or we can walk on into the mountains alone with righteous Lot, faces forward.

Taking a stand for the truth is not popular. There will be consequences for those who do. While I don’t go out with the intent to make the mask an issue, inevitably the issue comes to me. So, feelings are going to get hurt. I’ve seen it. Good people—Christian people—are going to be at odds with this assessment. We need to remember to be kind to the sheep who are sleep-walking into this trap, but honest and firm in our response. Feelings can be deadly. And as a watchman, I have a duty to warn them of the danger that is fast approaching—and that their willing participation in this ignorance is fomenting it.

In as far as my familiar blogger has posited with his mask stance, perhaps he’s right... There are bigger hills than this one to die on. And we’ll die on those as well.

I will not wear a mask because it is simply wrong. Outside of the theaters of surgery and dance, there is no godly purpose for it and NO ONE has any right or authority to tell you to cover your face. Death is better than submission to the false god of tyranny. And if we die, we die like men, without a paper diaper over our mouths.

Brethren, gird up thy loins. We have a long fight ahead of us, and there will be casualties.
