

FEAR OF THE INVISIBLE

The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. —Prov 10

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion. —Prov 28

It should be obvious by now that a grand PSYOP exceeding the level of the 9/11 events is now in full swing. For the Chaos-lords this is an exercise. All the media is on board—there is no dissent. That’s how we know. Under highly suspicious circumstances, a plague was simply declared and all were subjected, by law, to a forced quarantine—sick or not... The immediate (and intentional) ramifications being a cascading collapse of the complex and fragile “just-in-time” economy of the world.

The panic over this “plague”, however, is very real. That it is an irrational panic makes no difference to the outcome, as a herd of swine experiencing a mass psychosis all follow each other over the cliff. The powers are merely using this pandemic (planned or not) as a tool of mass delusion to get the results they’ve long desired... That being absolute control of every society and every useful individual, right down to the quantum level. By which I mean those who will not be brought under their control are deemed useless—even dangerous to the rest of their New Order. Be certain, that message will be propagated among the world-sheep and those who do not comply will be made the universal enemies of mankind. And we are seeing this unfold right before our eyes. As often as this has happened in history, this tactic is continually repeated by the powers because it gives consistent and effective results. We recall that in 1st century Rome, the Christians were similarly vilified by being labeled “haters of the human race”. And, as the saying goes, “those who will not learn from history are destined to repeat it”.

The coronavirus epidemic is a fraud. As every military historian knows, all American wars (and perhaps every war in history) began with a fraud—a deliberate, coordinated hoax—perpetrated on the people to gin up support for an otherwise unpopular and unwanted blood-letting. This is always necessary, because for the Elite, war is a spectator sport.

And, if you will permit the repetition of a familiar theme (I feel I must drive home this fact as it is so central to the issue)... We haven’t just stepped off the turnip truck and into a random patch of briars. We have arrived at this point as a nation after generations of building a godless society. Though we are well aware of God’s warnings to such nations, we nonetheless take our daily prescription of hopium in an effort to persuade ourselves that those admonitions are for others, not us.

But if we are to be honest with ourselves and with the evidence before us, at the heart of this panic is national rebellion. Once a nation has cast off Yahweh’s law, it is always replaced with some form of sorcery. “Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft” (1 Sam 15:23) and is synonymous with idolatry (also Gal 5:20). A godless society is a superstitious and fearful society, and a spellbound population is susceptible to just about any suggestion. Thus we’ve sown the seeds of our own destruction... A panicked herd is a very dangerous and lethal thing—both to themselves and to others on the periphery.

But, “God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind” (2 Tim 1:7)

Hear that, friends... “and of a SOUND MIND.” What do we see occurring around us if not insanity—a contagious psychosis. But we have been called to be separate! We are of a different mind than the world.

Christ has in fact given us a command to “be not afraid” (Mt 14:27). As his people, becoming mature in Him means to NOT let our fears control us, but rather to take control over them. Those who succumb to their fears become easy marks for those who would enslave them. And the State has spent many centuries learning to exploit that universal human defect. As mature believers, we should be able to recognize the tactic—to know that we are being rolled—and to avoid it. An overcomer, biblically defined, is one who has learned to be AS Christ in overcoming the world (Jn 16:33). This is the goal of the mature Christian—it is not merely a suggestion. The alternative is always to be overcome by the world. And that is the sad state of most.

Thus, to overcome the world...that word is nikaō. Literally, to subdue. We will prevail against them, just as Christ did. This is the path he has given us and we should rejoice in it... “Be of good cheer!” Jesus told us in that passage. Here again, this is not simply a recommendation.

But the counter kingdom has given us a quite different perspective—the very opposite command, in fact: “Be AFRAID”...“SUBMIT”... “Subject yourselves to our paradigm—accept our reality, and receive our remedies”. (Research the chilling doctrine of parens patriae.)

While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. (2 Pet 2:19)

Again and again, our King has told us, “in the world ye shall have tribulation”. We SHALL. Not may... That is the Truth. That is the Reality. The State, on the other hand, has traded that for a lie, promising us eternal comfort and security, so long as we abide in them. Once we’ve left the reservation, all hope is lost. Worse yet, we who deny their “citizenship” have become de facto outlaws, marked for abuse, or worse. It should be obvious that this is classic cultic conditioning. The State and its followers are the greatest and most destructive cult in all the world.

Seeing things for what they are, rather than as we’d wish them to be, is to be mature. It is the opposite of cowardly and foolish, which is the common trait of the masses, and it is precisely that which makes them easy to manipulate. Blinded by their fears, they are effectively blind to their enslavement.

I hope all of us can see the deceitful and controlling nature of the State by now. I hope we can perceive this PSYOP for what it is. I believe the Lord is testing His people here as well—proving them as to WHOM they will fear.

Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances? (Col 2:20)

What can we expect of our King at such a time as this? Though we have no oracle given to us, and it would seem we have no word of prophecy and no clear understanding of our future and the Plan of God, has he yet left us ignorant and without hope?

Of course not... WE have the Final Word, "living" in written form...the completed Oracle of God. The Bible, in entirety, IS the Plan of God. And it is being worked out in history. It did not end with the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, but it continues to unfold, year by year, generation by generation, through the birth and fall of nations unto the complete subjection of ALL things under Christ. "Believe ye this?"

*Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him. (Heb 2:8)

We have the unfortunate perspective of mortal humanity. Our vision is not perfectly clear, but we mustn't allow that to lead to faithlessness—and certainly not to the fear of the unknown. Our God is sovereign and our Savior sits on the throne presently. It may be that He is working a mighty work in our very midst and that we are a favored generation who will see things too wonderful for others to have even imagined. What was it He said so long ago through Job?

He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again. He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man. (Job 12)

Yahweh takes away the wicked that He may establish the just.

Robert E. Lee, nearing his death and reflecting upon his life in his memoirs made this beautiful observation:

"My experience of men has neither disposed me to think worse of them, nor indisposed me to serve them; nor, in spite of failures, which I lament, of errors, which I now see and acknowledge, or, of the present state of affairs, do I despair of the future. The march of Providence is so slow, and our desires so impatient, the work of progress is so immense, and our means of aiding it so feeble, the life of humanity is so long, and that of the individual so brief, that we often see only the ebb of the advancing wave, and are thus discouraged. It is history that teaches us to hope."

And so we must hope, as Job did in his own immense trials. And as he saw dimly on the horizon that same vision of Mr. Lee, so we today have a much clearer view and a higher vantage point than both of them. We've seen the progressive failures of the enemy, toppled by their own hubris, time and again out-witted by God, caught in their own snares. The Kingdom ever advances... Retreat is not an option, and we shall not fear what man can do to us.

Let us use our God-given intelligence to understand the narrative as it is presented and to reject the lies therein. Let us not cower from the hobgoblins the globalists have created in order to chase us into the shadows while they have their way over us—to fear for our lives at the shaking of a leaf, whilst silencing the truth to avoid the contempt of the ignorant. And above all, let us believe and obey the Word of God over any word of “wisdom” from self-proclaimed “authorities” of false science and political power, and their damnable majority opinion.

“Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.” (2 Chron 32:7)
