

RACE AND NATION

*“But why should the story come to an end? It doesn’t, of course, in the literal sense of stoppage or total ruin. All that is meant by Decadence is “falling off”. It implies in those who live in such a time no loss of energy or talent or moral sense. On the contrary, it is a very active time, full of deep concerns, but peculiarly restless, for it sees no clear lines of advance. The loss it faces is that of Possibility. The forms of art, as of life seem exhausted, the stages of development have been run through. Institutions function painfully. Repetition and frustration are the intolerable result. Boredom and fatigue are great historical forces.” –Jacques Barzun, *From Dawn to Decadence

“Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.” –Psalm 119:165

Worn down and wore out, the West—the most advanced, prosperous, and lasting civilization made by a race of men—is finally succumbing to fatigue. We’ve no more frontiers, no one left to conquer, no gold left to mine or steal. Of the descendants of those men who explored, discovered, conquered, built and garnished our civilization, few exist today who even believe or understand the cost of the work and blood which bought the unimaginable luxuries they now enjoy. Or care to. The religion and the God of their fathers having become now but a relic to be locked in a trunk in the attic, they not only possess all things, but they’ve forgotten all things. Their only enemies now are each other.

Presumably, this how the story ends. This is how the West is dissolved—amalgamated into a borderless World Authority where all nations are equally backwards, hopeless, and destitute. The kingdom of men is like unto a small country of Brazil, which grew and became a great nation, until the whole earth was Brazil...

Either by amalgamation or extinction, it seems we’ve consented as a people to national suicide by the implantation of a wicked thought—that we have no right to exist as a distinct people, that all of our advantage was usurped; all that we have, we stole. Therefore our repudiation is the natural consequence of enjoying the fruits of the labor of others—particularly of blacks—whose cities, lands and farms whites took from them to build our own nation here in America. The decline and erasure of our nation then is our just reward... At least, that would be their working script if they could write it. Fortunately, they have a staff of Hollywood (and NY Times) scribes that have done that for them.

All of this madness was predictable—how we missed it, I’ve no idea.

“It will probably be asked, Why not retain and incorporate the blacks into the state, and thus save the expense of supplying, by importation of white settlers, the vacancies they will leave? Deep rooted prejudices entertained by the whites; ten thousand recollections, by the blacks, of the injuries they have sustained; new provocations; the real distinctions which nature has made; and many other circumstances, will divide us into parties, and produce convulsions which will probably never end but in the extermination of the one or the other race.” (Thomas Jefferson, Notes on the State of Virginia, 1781)

Today in 2020 America, black lives matter. Exclusively, it would seem. Whether other ethnicities particularly agree with this mantra seems of little concern to blacks, oddly enough. Except one. Of the Hispanic, South Asian, East Asian, Middle Eastern or aboriginal populations of America, it seems mutually agreeable that it matters not what they think about the “lives” of each other, or of blacks... This is what is called, a clue. In fact, the organizers and funders of this political action (hate) group, being the usual suspects, have a dog in this fight, as one might expect, and it’s not the Others they wish to see as combatants in a fomented race war. No, we must be relentlessly reminded that it is those evil Anglo-Saxons who hate black lives... as Esau’s eternal war against Jacob comes ‘round again.

We observe that it is exclusively the Caucasians which are strictly admonished to bow before them, take a knee, or raise the fist in solidarity to the oppressed afro race. I hope none of us here are tempted to pay such misplaced and disingenuous homage (I don’t expect so) but it is becoming increasingly clear that the fields are white with sheep ready to be sheared—once again—for their phobia of public scorn. Being shamed into admitting guilt where none exists seems to be a character flaw for many of us. Anyway, in the short video clip (and there are many like it to be found) the riotous crowd has found a young (white) couple at a table who have apparently left their self-loathing at home... and thus suffer the wrath of the mob for their failure to genuflect in the presence of the righteous. They are fortunate to have left unbloodied, and merely publicly humiliated. (Note all the other white patrons cowardly suffering the proper indignity in the hopes that the spotlight—or the bullhorn—doesn’t come upon them.)

This, my friends, is how fires begin “that cannot be quenched”. This is dangerous stuff.

Because America is not South Africa. We are still a very well-armed population and whites are still the majority. The unrecognized danger, I believe, is that the older generations of said majority (those in middle-age and beyond), having the highest proportion of wealth, means, and armaments, and being old enough to remember what America once was, while seeing the hourglass running out, are in that peculiar situation of simultaneously being the group with the most, and the least to lose. What is being overlooked by the younger Marxist crowd and the lower IQ mixed multitudes alike is that the tolerance threshold of a more experienced and older man for the monkeyshines of fools is a tenuous thing. It is usually crossed abruptly, without warning, and irretrievably. And once the limit is passed, the vengeance of justice is ferocious and cannot be stopped.

I also believe the BLM and ‘Antifa’ handlers—formerly known as the Barabbas’ Life Matters crowd—are quite cognizant of this danger and are using their ‘tools’ with guided anger and skillful propaganda to the intent of backing that group of whites into a corner. The action is the reaction; now the fuse is lit and the fireworks will usher in the next phase of the Plan. They have coordinated and timed these events of a plandemic, racial riots and the soon to come chaos of a repudiated national election—which neither side will accept— to near perfection. What could possibly go wrong?

Much can, and probably will.

A year ago, a journalist on the Left translated the following from his Marxist playbook:

“The opposing narrative is something like this: America began with a crime — stealing the land from Native Americans. It continued with an atrocity, slavery. The American story is the conflict between oppressors who seek to preserve white supremacy and people who seek to move beyond it. The essential American struggle is to confront the national sin, have a racial reckoning and then seek reconciliation.”
(David Brooks, NY Times June 6, 2019)

Is this true or a lie? We’d better know the answer, because if we are called to stand for the Truth (and we are), the times that are approaching may mean life or death for ourselves and our progeny if we get it wrong. A “racial reckoning” may be what they desire, but I assure you “they know not what they do.” Because if there is one great “national sin” it may be that we permitted the influx of diverse nations and races to live amongst us in the first place. God indeed has a remedy for that, and it’s not reparations. In fact, the only chance for a peaceful “reckoning” in this country is separation and segregation. And that’s a distant hope.

I hear the objection already: ‘That is not an acceptable answer...It’s un-Christian!’ Is it? Do we truly know this, or is it a feeling? We’d better believe that just as in Israel’s days of old, our lack of knowledge—especially now—will destroy us and our posterity. Just as Yahweh has forewarned us in Hosea 4. We are in fact on the exact same trajectory as Israel was then:

“...For the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish...” (v.1-3)

The land is already mourning. The Times journalist is right about one thing—the American story is a conflict... And there is indeed an evil underlying this centuries-long controversy within our people.

Barzun—who does not profess Christianity—argued in Dawn to Decadence that Western society is now 500 years old and in the advance stages of death. He asserts there were four initial religious revolutions which began the era (the Protestant Revolution being the first) in which the “diversity of opinion and faith fostered new feelings of nationhood” ... Attitudes were drastically changed pertaining to work, art and the very meaning of civilization. These did great things and caused extraordinary advancements, but they also had a notable detrimental effect which, I think, only now is being fully revealed... He said about these things,

“It deprived the West of its ancestral sense of unity and common descent.”

A remarkable observation! And we can trace the consequences of that loss up to the present time.

He further defined revolutions as “a violent transfer of power and property in the name of an idea...they give culture a new face.” This having been accomplished in Europe by the 18th century, it yet remained for the Western colonies, particularly in the Americas (Spanish Mexico, the United States and Canada), to be completed by the diversification of racial groups through immigration and amalgamation. A multicultural society controlled by an all-powerful and centralized State would finish the job of Decadence as a destructive power... the “new face” of Western culture was destined to be brown, and the Christian revolutions of Europe would be at length subverted and subsumed by their mingled religion.

Undoubtedly, the diversification of Christian lands and peoples in the West has led to our seemingly insurmountable troubles. That aforementioned underlying evil is the seed that grows within it... An interesting parallel appears in scripture when we look at the nation of Israel at the time of Ezekiel. Israel had an ancient enemy in the Philistines. Plagued for generations by this people group—this nation—the time had finally come for God to judge them and end it:

“Thus saith the Lord God; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred; Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines... And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.” (Ezekiel 25)

An “old hatred” festers. It manifests as envy, blame and resentment and when appeased, as it is now by the cultural Marxists of politics and media, it blossoms into megalomania and aggravated entitlement. We have a national problem of an “old hatred” of a former slave race. And it is shared and agitated by those same usual suspects who have raised up an army of spiritual spawn in white, self-hating progressives. I don’t say that casually but truthfully, as they’ve openly confessed their own propaganda. One of their own said the following over a century ago:

“We must realize that our Party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races, that for centuries have been oppressed by the Whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party ... In America, we will aim for subtle victory. While enflaming the Negro minority against the Whites, we will instill in the Whites, a guilt complex for the exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise to prominence in every walk of life, in the professions, and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negroes will be able to intermarry with the Whites, and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.” (Israel Cohen, 1913)

The agitators have prevailed marvelously. Deceiving us again and again with false narratives about poor black saints being gunned down in cold blood by racist cops—using actors who always turn out to be drug addled felons or violent offenders. Every time. The hatred is hardly concealed now, being universally justified by so-called “Systemic Racism”. This term is now used by the Cult of Academia to sanctify every injustice against society—and their equally defective remedies—by blaming all the pathologies of the black race upon the white.

Unfortunately, actual history and anthropology would refute such a notion...seeing as it was that at the time of the European colonization of Africa in the late 1800s, the indigenous peoples there were found without any written language, no recorded history of any sort, nor concept of law, nor even the use of the wheel. Also unfortunate is the fact that very few recognize this VAST GULF which naturally separates us. If the white race is not to blame for the 5,000 years of stagnation and spiritual darkness of a race of men entirely isolated, unmolested on the African continent for millennia, how can we be accused of causing their ills once providing all of the benefits of civilization?

Nevertheless—and this gets us to the heart of the matter—whether or not systemic or institutional racism against blacks is real, and wherever it may have occurred in the past, it is inevitably and erroneously conflated with segregation, which is not a SIN, but merely culturally pragmatic for the maintenance of a civil society (see South Africa before and after Apartheid). And, frankly, God demands it (Ps 74:17, Acts 17:26, Ezra 9, etc.).

However, in a turn of irony not missed on the rest of us, in America today such an institutional racism indeed exists in the form of a subjugation of majority Heritage Americans who are now forced to confess their “national sin” and to exchange our former merit-based institutions with a skin-caste system. Therewith our former and glorious “Privilege” (an equally asinine term) will be handed over to the dusky peoples in the media, government and judicial systems as a reparation! This is why we see mayors in besieged cities standing down the police and refusing to prosecute the terror, destruction, assaults, and even murders of the offending rioters and looters in their communities. Instead, upright (white) citizens who successfully defend themselves and their property are arrested and jailed.

In the Great Reset, when the new heavens and the new earth are created by the consortium of Gates, Soros, the Rockefellers, and the Rothschilds, there will of course be no more “nations”, but One World, One Race, and One Law for all. This will lead to one philosophical language—One Religion, if you will. Slavery and genocide will be impossible and peace and universal equity will reign forever and ever, Amen.

And if you believe that, you are a fool.

While I am certain the masses of whites do not understand this issue of nationhood—what it is and why it really matters—WE MUST remind them that nations are made up of families that share common descent, culture, language, and a common inheritance. They have been beaten down so long with this demonization of borders and the desecration of their own heritage that they no longer have any notion of what is “ours” anymore. We haven’t a country, nor any familial property, but only that which is held “in common” by the State and whomever the State wishes to invite onto our doorstep. “We are a nation of immigrants,” they lie to us... In fact, we were a nation of colonists. And later became many nations vying for political control of land and resources. By and by we became a nation of usurpers and the harlots that welcomed them.

We have as a people allowed ourselves to be robbed of everything. It is because we have forgotten our Maker and adulterated with the world. Now ‘the stranger that is within has gotten high up above us; and we have come down very low.’ (Deut 28:43)

The time has now come for history to “rhyme”.

“On the occasion corresponding to this four years ago, all thoughts were anxiously directed to an impending civil war. All dreaded it—all sought to avert it. While the inaugural address was being delivered from this place devoted altogether to saving the Union without war, insurgent agents were in the city seeking to destroy it without war—seeking to dissolve the Union and divide effects by negotiation. Both parties deprecated war but one of them would make war rather than let the nation survive, and the other would accept war rather than let it perish. And the war came.” (Abraham Lincoln, 2nd Inaugural Address)

Brethren, we are again in very perilous times. Our countrymen have made some grievous errors in ignoring God-established borders and yoking our people together with heathen nations. They are now pitted against us, and we with each other. Our National Sin, truly, was in ever believing a country could be a “nation of immigrants” living in interracial harmony contrary to God’s laws. The ideological war we are enmeshed in currently will inevitably turn kinetic—and probably very soon. But how we react as an ancestral people with a Christian heritage in making the hard decisions of Ezra will lay the foundation for the next American Age—if there is to be one. The salvation of the West will strongly depend upon how we address the issues laid out herein while engaged in the next Reconstruction, and will determine whether we at once begin building the Kingdom of God, or rebuilding another false nation for a temporary peace destined to fail.
