

RENDER THY CHILDREN

“Render thy children unto Caesar, for he knoweth how best to serve them.” (Unknown)

Presumably with fava beans and a good Chianti...

The death cult of nihilistic modernism and transhumanism marches on in ‘lockstep’ now to the beat of that new religion fashioned by Huxley, Darwin and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. The latter of which seeing our day and calling it the “Omega Point”—the Christogenesis—where the convergence of man with ‘spirit’ brings about a new society... “whose personal God is no longer the great Neolithic landowner of times gone by, but the Soul of the world.”

Thus reducing the Almighty to a mythical Landlord who cares nothing for His Creation, other than to collect the ‘rents’... Such were the cavalier blasphemies of the Jesuit priest-philosopher, whom God yet, in His infinite mercies, deigned to allow his heart to continue beating beyond his threescore and ten years. In fact, (according to Wikipedia), “On 15 March 1955, at the house of his diplomat cousin Jean de Lagarde, Teilhard told friends he hoped he would die on Easter Sunday. On the evening of Easter Sunday, 10 April 1955, during an animated discussion at the apartment of his personal assistant, Teilhard suffered a heart attack and died.”

The Almighty even granted him his final wish. Oh, how unknowable are His thoughts and ways!

But we’re not here today to speak about Chardin. This writer, however, did a nice job of it in a recent piece, in which he fingers Chardin as also being the principle fraudster in the Piltdown Hoax. So Chardin was a charlatan. Who knew?

Yet it shouldn't surprise us much at all that the Managers of this world would delude us with such preposterous fables of man's origins from a filed dog tooth and the jawbone of an orangutan—seeing as how they self-identify as dogs. In the Gospels, Christ, the “Son of man”, traced His human ancestry back to Adam, “the son of God”. These “brute beasts”, as Jude calls them, have as their father someone other than He.

But Christ also told us, “Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine...” (Matthew 7:6) For a believer, the fruit of the womb is holy—in the sense that it came from God. And while I'm sure most Christians would not think of having their babies torn from the womb and disposed of as “medical waste”, or even parted out to the highest bio-tech bidder and experimented upon, nevertheless a great majority of professing believers have no problem rendering their living children unto Caesar.

And we'll come back to that shortly, but let's first put everything in perspective... Despite the fact that America was allegedly a “Christian nation”—even back in 1973 when the horror of legalized infanticide was foisted upon us—somehow the majority “Christian” population managed to excuse the atrocities that have gone on day after day, continuously, since that “federal verdict” was given... Because it was now “the law” of the land. And that made it alright. But go and read that linked article above regarding the trafficking of “fresh, never frozen” baby parts contracted by the FDA for use in “Science”. Because in “Christian America” now (and again), it's likewise totally legal, and a marketable product. Even as what passes for “Science” now seems like science fiction; Incredibly, these “fetal tissue procurements” were used in ‘Humanized Mice Workshops’ in Europe—paid for by the generous tithes and offerings of the American taxpayer. In other words, ‘on Caesar's dime’.

And let's stop being dishonest about that word, fetus. It's a diversion, not a ‘medical term’. Fetus is simply the Latin word for “offspring”, or “fruit”, and in fact was used synonymously for the “newborn creature itself”. In other words, a baby.

Some of us may need a refresher, so let's hear some statistics from the World Health Organization itself...

“In the USA, where nearly half of pregnancies are unintended and four in 10 of these are terminated by abortion, there are over 3,000 abortions per day. Twenty-two percent of all pregnancies in the USA (excluding miscarriages) end in abortion.”

So the first thing we learn is that nearly HALF of pregnancies in America are “unintended”... That's code for “unwanted, undesired, and highly inconvenient”. Most of those of course result from fornication of one form or another, however, a good portion are also within what passes for “wedlock” these days. In other words, wives who don't want to be mothers again, or at all—the “birth control” failed and a huge vexation is now put upon them. According to the data, however, (only) 17% of those marital pregnancies are terminated. Still...that's 17% of married couples that conceived unwanted children—and killed them. That translates to 186,000 infant-murders within intact families each year in this nation alone.

And if you would surmise that these abortions occur only among the heathen you'd be wrong. In fact, "13% of abortion patients describe themselves as born-again or evangelical Christians". That's over 142,000 murders of children at the hands of their "Christian" mothers, every year in "Christian America". Is Yahweh amused by this?

Citations here.

I would hazard a guess at saying that those 13% were of the weekly churching, and were unwed mothers, and probably under-aged. That is to say, a set of parents with an "image" to uphold before the other parishioners had a wayward daughter that suddenly, accidentally, found herself pregnant. And lest she bring shame upon them, mom and dad shuttled her into the nearest abortion clinic before she showed too much. Equally likely is the fact that the baby is a huge disruption in the girl's life, from which she wanted to spare herself—and her family—and so as not to ruin her 'college experience'. Religion may be the opiate of the masses, but a good Judeo-Christian understands that when a baby is at stake—and the obligation that comes with it—it's best to partake, but not inhale.

And lest we think that those Christians (including ourselves) who did have children, and did raise them up in the fear of the Lord—attempting to obey God's Word concerning parental duties and are without blame—let's examine ourselves more closely. There are many ways to offer up one's children unto Moloch.

The fact is, the worldview amongst Christians today hardly differs from those "outside". The vast majority of them are fully indoctrinated in the modernistic religion of churchianity and are card-carrying statist (literally) who, for all intents and purposes look, sound, and behave exactly like their heathen neighbors who never go to 'church'. Like their other pets, they get their children all of their shots early and often, assign to them their Federal Identification Numbers and registering their birth with the State—pricked, photographed, and fingerprinted—before they ever leave the so-called hospital (where healthy mothers giving birth truly have no business being in the first place). And just as soon as possible, they stick them into a "day-care center" to relieve themselves of the duty to raise and care for them, preferring their "careers" and permitting them more time for ladies' functions at the local mega-church. Besides, who better to teach them how to be good "Citizens" of the world than the multicultural diversity-hires who haunt the Head Start programs?

But the most insidious thing parents do is give to them their own defective worldview. They instill in them, by way of mass media (which they bottle-feed them through tablets and TV as soon as they can sit upright) and in the public and private school centers, as well as by the progressive, and subversive “Sunday-schools,” that precise Way of the World which Christians ought to deny. Instead of the Spirit of Christ, they are indoctrinated into Chardin’s Soul of the World... It is deliberate, iterative, and incremental, even if it is done ignorantly. Day by day, they hear and observe how they should obey the powers that be...they should not question “authorities”, or the “Science”, or their teachers, or the watery pabulum of their pastor, and the only thing they should ever doubt is the sincere beliefs of their own parents whenever they diverge from the Narrative. Otherwise, all opinions are equal, except usually dad’s, who is perpetually framed as the village idiot—often times by his own wife.

And now that the same FDA that traffics in vivisected human babies has “approved” the jab for 5-11 year olds against a so-called disease that affects none of them (because reasons), what comes next is the forced compliance of injecting millions of children with a toxic gene therapy, so they can enroll in “school” to continue their miseducation. This will likely happen by next year. And count on annual booster requirements thereafter until the ‘Plan’ is fully enacted, and whatever the real intent of these sorceries is made inevitable and irreversible.

In this way are the children rendered unto Caesar. And Caesar will devour them. And they will in turn render their children up as well. About the time that Chardin was proselytizing his new Marxist form of Christianity, it was the Bolshevik, Vladimir Lenin who said, “Give me just one generation of youth, and I’ll transform the whole world”. They gave, and he did. A Jewish-controlled communist dictatorship was the result, and any ember of genuine Christianity left in Mother Russia was vigorously stamped out. What followed was 70 years of Soviet dysfunction and the vengeful murder of tens of millions of their own countrymen.

Don’t say it can’t happen in our Christian nation, because we haven’t one. And may I remind you that in just my lifetime our ‘System’ of freedom and democracy has murdered over 62 million of our own without even the decency of a burial—their bodies being commoditized as butcher’s scraps or else incinerated as ‘medical waste’. Most American conservatives are grossly apathetic about this atrocity, as are most “churches”. Oh, they know plenty about a Jewish “holocaust” of “6 million” concentration camp victims in Germany and still tear their garments and ululate at every mention of it, but of the American holocaust of unwanted children ... they offer sorry excuses of “tolerance,” and ignorant talk about “rights” and Supreme Court (sic) decisions. That is because they have been trained to do so. Because lord Caesar has programmed their sense of justice from their Sesame Street days, while their “pastors” reconciled the same by their Jesus who always obeyed the authorities and was careful to pay his taxes.

And this is not a judgement on Hitler, but he famously—and accurately—stated, “When an opponent declares, ‘I will not come over to your side,’ I calmly say, ‘Your child belongs to us already. You will pass on. Your descendants, however, now stand in the new camp. In a short time they will know nothing else but this new community."

That chilling remark deserves some careful reservation among our "camp". Because when we continue to teach our children to "respect the authorities" and to "obey the law"—without properly defining "law" and "authority"—we psychologically hamstring them, defeating their ability to discern what they are to resist, and how to resist it. Accordingly, many will become the new Brown Shirts, ratting out their own parents in a future Reset Society. In America, and elsewhere, legally-sanctioned lawlessness will continue to debauch and devalue our culture, undermine our heritage, and degrade life in general as long as we permit it to go on. And for every child that is fed to Caesar, he leaves another little spoor pile on the wide path to our national destruction.

"Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves slaves to obey, his slaves ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" (Romans 6:16)

Mark it down for our posterity that the Omega Point occurred when the black mask of obedience was permanently stretched over the faces of the children in the year 2020, and the cybernetic injections began en masse in 2022. From this day forward, of the 4 in 5 children that survived the harrowing journey in their mother's wombs, or otherwise avoided the ghoulish destruction of their bodies for "Science", those same mothers and fathers immediately instituted their irreversible descent into transhumanism and the final initiation into the Slave Grid. Because Moloch's and Caesar's appetite was insatiable, and the insouciant, statist obedience of the people being finally perfected, the antichrist looked down from his crucifix and said, "it is finished"... Every generation will remember this moment in time when the world was rendered unto Caesar and every future child born into it was signed and sealed with the mark of Pfizer or Moderna, each one patented as a GMO creation, each the perpetual property of the new Globo-Corporate State.

Unless... Unless a few of us remain to resist. Unless a remnant, albeit small, will stop the process within our own families, protecting them from the moment of conception, and beyond the moment of birth from the diktats of Pharaoh, and begin actively and diligently sabotaging the Globalist Jew World Order at whatever the cost... Those people will be outcasts, and outlaws in our immediate future; that seems assured. But when we finally learn to render unto God what is God's we will see a mighty correction. That's a promise. Hear the cry of Isaiah in his opening chapter:

"If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land.."

The promise is that God indeed has that remnant. Is it you?

“Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah...”

The remnant is always working behind the scenes. They are the true builders of the Kingdom. They have not sacrificed their children unto Moloch, but are leading them towards Christ and obedience to His Law, and no one else's. They will have no other gods before Him. They are resisting the evil, and rebuking the lies of the enemies of Christ. They are preparing to build again upon the old foundations, and gathering the tools and the knowledge and the strength to do it. They shall inherit the earth.

Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. (Isaiah 1:27)
