

12-26-2020 - Friendship with the World - Adultery and Sorcery

Preached first on 12/26/2020 on www.molibertyradio.us

Good morning everyone. And, as always. I do thank you for taking the time to listen in on the message this morning. As I've told you many times before, I do not not this lightly nor do I take it for granted. I am glad you are listening - and I am glad to know that you are sharing with others what you are hearing in these messages.

I want to remind you again that Kingdom Conference 2021 is just around the corner. It's what is commonly known as March 18 through the 21st and we'll be meeting again, Lord willing, at the Maranatha Bible Camp and Event Center which is just outside of Springfield Missouri. About 30 minutes to the northwest. You can find directions easily from the internet by just typing in Maranatha Bible Camp, Everton, Missouri. If you are planning on attending, please let us know as soon as possible. We would greatly appreciate it.

I want to remind you again of Michael's Minutes on the website. I've heard from several of you this past week letting me know that the one we just posted is probably his best yet. I've actually said that several times before in relation to others he has posted. If you have not read Michael's Minutes, I encourage you to do that. They are on the website at www.godsendusmen.com and are under the tab called Michael's Minutes.

For just a minute this morning, I want to talk to those of you that are over the age of 40 in physical years. That doesn't mean by any stretch that I want the young people to tune out - it's just the opposite. You younger people listen more intently than ever.

I realize that the messages that I preach can and are very painful for most of you to hear. The reality that we have been lied to about virtually every single thing in this life is tough to swallow - especially - when you know it's true. Being lied to about the shape of the earth, or whether the sun is sitting still and the earth is spinning at a thousand miles an hour while it travels around the sun at thousands of miles an hour - even though there are numerous Bible passages that say the sun is the one moving - or lies about who God's people are - or lies about who bombed the World Trade Centers - or who killed Kennedy - or who sank the Maine - or who started the Civil War - or what the civil war was actually fought for - or the Corona virus - and now the Corona virus vaccine - and on and on and on - with the constant lies - I get all that - and the truth is - with each one they try to force down our throats now - we are being desensitized to their lies - which is great - and it is pretty much like ho-hum - here's another one.

But when it comes to the harshest of all realities - that even our own relationship to God and the Bible needs to be challenged - needs to be looked at again - well - that's a hundred times more difficult than all the other lies we've been bombarded with.

Even though so many of us searching for truth realized that quote "church" isn't where truth is - and for some of us - well - I'd say from the majority of you who write into me - you've known this for a long time - but uncovering the sobering reality that the word shouldn't even be in the Bible - that's really tough. Here we have been trying to help others find truth - while they are playing quote "church" and we've almost been pulled into the false dichotomy that quote "church" would be fine - if they were just preaching what we preach - but the truth is - quote "church" will never preach what we preach because God never ordained quote "church" - God never intended for there to be quote "church" - and the truth and "church" will never come together. They are diametrically opposed to one another. The quote "church" is the religious arm of the state - it is not of God - has never been of God - will never be of God - and it can't be reformed - it can't be revived - because it never had life to begin with.

And, for those of you who have left the quote "church" - you've done so because God Himself led you out of there. True followers of Christ will not play "church." If a true follower of Christ is quote "in church" - he will either be such an irritant that he just can't take the lies any longer - or he will be shown the door because the quote "church" has had enough. The quote "church" is not ordained of God and His true followers have listened to the voice of the Great Shepherd and the Great Shepherd has led His sheep out of that sheepfold. Christ is not in the "church." It is the religious arm of the state. The state is in the "church." The state is "lord of the church" and Christ is not in it.

To this day, I remember the first Sunday that I had made up my mind that I would not be in a church building. It was the weirdest feeling I had probably felt in my entire life up to that point. I had guilty emotions. I had feelings of uncertainty. It was pretty strange. But as I continued to grow in Biblical, saving faith, I knew that the path I was now headed was the one where the Great Shepherd was leading me.

But, I admit, in the beginning, it was challenging to fully commit to those truths regarding the word, the building, what it stands for, and all that is related to the quote "church." But it is the truth. I know, beyond any shadow of a doubt - that what I preach concerning quote "church" is the truth - and I must continue to preach it. Even if it hurts feelings, it has to be preached.

I know, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that the things I preach from James 4 are the truth. Friendship with the world, is enmity with God. Whosoever therefore is a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

Remember now, I'm still directed to the people age 40 and over. We have been taught our whole lives - that Christians are supposed to be good citizens of the world. The best of the best. Set the example to the rest of the world and be the best, the most flag-waving, the most honorable tax-payers, the first ones on our feet when the music plays, the first one with hats off, hands on the heart. When the voting centers open at 6:00, well, we'll be there at 5:30 - or we'll be there manning the voting booths. I get it. That's what the quote "churches" and the "churchmen" have told us our entire lives. The quote "churches" are in many places - the voting centers themselves.

But you know it, I know it, we all know that's a lie. It's a hundred times worse than all the other lies put together. But because nearly every 40 something in America and around the world has fallen for it - that doesn't mean we don't have to face the reality of it. I have to continue preaching it. Look, I don't know why God - either chose me to keep me out of that world when I was 17 years old - or exactly how that process worked - but He did. I didn't get into that world. So, yes, I'm the first one to tell you - now - at what my mother has told me is age 58 - it's not been hard for me to not be a participant in that world. I've never known that world. I wouldn't know how to live in it - if I could. It's totally foreign to me.

That's why when I was sitting in their stinking jail cell and in their stinking court rooms, it was just the oddest feeling ever. Like, "what in the world am I doing here?" It was as if I had been plucked up from my world and taken off into space somewhere. The things they were doing, the things they were saying, just so so strange to me.

One day in one of their sham court hearings, I asked the cop if he had found anything in my house, anything, that could tie me - this body - to anything in their quote "system." I mean, surely he could find a number. Surely he could find a document, surely he could find a license, or a tax form, or something. Surely he could find something on a 50 something plus man that could tie that man to his government. You know what his answer was? This was the best this idiot could come up with.

"Your clothes were in your closet." Really? That's the best you've got? What an absolute moron. See, I don't typically associate with morons. I associate with the children of light. I associate with ambassadors and heirs of God. I associate with really brilliant people who have given their lives to the service of the King. So, this was really really strange for me. Truly like an episode of the Twilight Zone. You 40+ somethings know what I mean - you younger folks - go on Youtube or wherever and watch some old Twilight Zone episodes.

So, yeah, I have lived what I have preached for over 40 years and it has not been difficult to do so. It's the only life I have known.

Now, for you 40+ out there, you've listened to and have embraced the Biblical truths of Fulfilled Bible Prophecy. Once the light came on, all your previous Bible understandings were now brought to another level. Many of you, a lot of you, have told me how that almost instantly, once you realized that Christ fulfilled the prophecies in the first century - you've written to me to tell me how so many of the unanswered questions, the head scratching passages, had just all of a sudden cleared up. Absolutely. I've heard that many times in the last 30+ years.

And friends, that's where it has to start. We are saved by faith - listen - for by grace are you saved - what's it say? what does it say? Every single one of you can quote it:

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Salvation comes when we hear saving faith and by the grace of God we embrace it and believe it. Salvation comes through the saving faith....

Open your Bibles to Ephesians chapter 2. Let's look at verse 1. We will see in the first verses the object of salvation, then towards the middle, we will see how to get there. Verse 1:

[1] And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

Those who were the recipients of this letter; were they born again, followers of Christ? Absolutely. No doubt. They were - past tense - they had been dead in their trespasses and their sins - they had been dead because of their violations of the Laws of God - but they had been quickened - they had been brought back from the dead - they had been made new creations. They were born again, followers of Christ. Verse 2.

[2] Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

Here is the object of their salvation. This is the purpose. This is where their salvation was supposed to bring them. We were never preached this. I am of the firm opinion that for those of you who listen to me preach every single week, you've looked at the Scriptures regarding Bible prophecy, you've looked at the Scriptures regarding the King and His established Kingdom in the first century - had you been taught early on in life that the object of your salvation - the reason you were quickened - the reason you were brought back from the dead - the purpose of your salvation was so that you would no longer walk according to the course of this world - I believe - I hope - that's where you would be today.

Come on brethren, what else can the course of this world mean? It does not mean no smoking, no drinking, no going to movies and no dancing. If you were raised a Baptist, you know full well that I am telling the truth. That's what they taught - years ago - that is not what being of the world means. And you know it, I know it, we all know that's a pile of garbage.

Not walking according to the course of this world means that we have come out from the course - we've come out from the orderly arrangement - we've come out from the little g "governments" of this world and all their millions and millions of quote "laws and statues" - with all their ungodly demands - and we have chosen to live a life following the King of kings and Lord of lords. We all know that's what it means.

But many of us can't really see it, because we see no way out of our current lifestyles and livelihoods. Now stay with me. What I just said is not a beat down. I'm not trying to beat you down because you have not seen this. I'm not trying to beat you down and lay a giant guilt trip on you. God knows you have that already - you don't need more from me. That's not what I'm doing and it's not where I'm heading. So stay with me.

Let me continue please. Those first century saints living on the land they referred to as Ephesus - were brought from death to life - for the purpose of walking in a new life - a life was not according to the course of the world - it was not according to the prince of the power of the air - and not according to the ways of the children of disobedience. These are serious, serious descriptions and they go way beyond the inane stupidity of what the state “church” has defined them. This is “We the People” and “our laws and our statues and our treaties - shall be the supreme law of the land.”

Brethren, every single time I hear that statement made, I cannot fathom how anyone who calls them self a follower of God - cannot just cringe at that statement. I was a kid - a 20 year old - when I read that for the first time - and nearly went into heart failure at how appalling that statement is. That is sticking a fist in the face of God and telling Him - just like they did to Christ - WE WILL NOT HAVE THIS MAN TO REIGN OVER US. “Our laws” “Our statues” - not God's Laws, not God's Statutes and certainly not His Judgements - “OUR LAWS SHALL THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND!” If that isn't the ways of the children of disobedience, I don't know what is.

This is what Ephesians 2:1-2 is talking about. And this is what the followers of Christ are supposed to be saved to do. Verse 3;

[3] Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

Once again. Due to the laziness of the “churchman” in doing just the most simple of studying - either on purpose - or just from laziness - the “churchman” says, “Yeah, that preacher Charlie, see, look at verse 3, “their conversation” it means the way you talk. It means don't cuss and don't talk about dirty things.

Conversation does not mean your speech in Ephesians 2:3. It comes from the Greek word anastrepho and it means to overturn; also to return, by implication to busy oneself, for instance, to remain, live: abide - behave self, have conversation, live, overthrow, pass, return, be used.

Webster's 1828 says,

- 1. General course of manners; behaviour; deportment; especially as it respects morals.*
- 2. A keeping company; familiar intercourse; intimate fellowship or association; commerce in social life. Knowledge of men and manners is best acquired by conversation with the best company.*

It's not until you get to Webster's 4th definition of the word before speaking is even mentioned. When you see the English word conversation in the last 27 books of the Bible, it is talking about your way of living.

Wycliffe translates verse 3 like this:

in which also we all lived sometime in the desires of our flesh, doing the wills of the flesh and of the thoughts, and we were by kind the sons of wrath, as other men;

Conversation means your way of life. And verse 3 says we all lived in it at some point - that's why we all have a need for salvation. Verse 4:

[4] But God,

Thank you, Lord for all the “But Gods” that you've put in your Word;

But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
[5] Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

Now, this is really really interesting here. Look at verse 5, again. Keep in mind now the goal, the object of salvation from verses 1-2 - was that they were saved, quickened, brought back to life so that they would NOT be walking according to the course of the world

Now listen to me. This is not an excuse to continue walking according to the course of this world. I believe there are some preachers out there who would use this as an excuse, or as a reason to relieve the urgency of our reason for salvation. And, today, I am not at all excusing the lifestyles of - let's face it - the great majority of folks who claim Christ and are still walking according to the course of the world. Some of you have just in the last couple years had your minds changed.

Again, this message, none of my messages are intended to be beat downs for those who are genuine seekers of the Kingdom of Christ. Yeah, for those playing “church” and insisting on playing that game, for those playing little g “governments” and insisting on doing so, yeah. But for those who are seeking the Kingdom but can't find the way out of the world - I'm not beating you up. It's by grace are you saved, through faith. First of all, do you have saving faith? Have you changed your mind? Do you understand that the King came in the first century? Do you understand that the little g "governments" in the world today are in place to oppose the King? Are you trying to find ways out? Is your goal to get out of the sheepfold and follow the Shepherd? Before you can walk correctly, you have to think correctly.

If you do not have saving faith - a system of belief - based on the truths of the Scripture - you couldn't possibly walk right if you wanted to.

I know it has to be difficult - man's little g "government" - that's part of the trap - part of the snare - they've done everything they can do to entrap every single living, breathing creature into their course of the world - and once they have you - they have done everything they can possibly do to keep you from escaping. I get that. It's been that way for a long long time. Men's little g "governments" have been tidying up the loose ends, they've been trying to lock up all the escape routes for a long time - even Isaiah wrote:

Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

This is why the little g "governments" do everything they can to destroy the belief in the existence of God. Christ, His Kingdom, Yahweh, His Laws - are the only source for true freedom and they do not want people to find it. This is why they have done everything they can to make it a quote "crime" in their system to follow the teachings of the Bible.

Christ forbids systems like the social system in the U.S. God forbids number people with identification numbers. So what does man do? Tries to assign every man an identification number and then builds society around that number. What happens? Men are now living contrary to the clear teachings of the Bible. Try living without those numbers and they have determined you to be a quote "criminal."

Taxing labor? Yahweh forbids it. To the point where the Scriptures say - Isaiah 58:1-3 - if you participate in a system that taxes labour - God will not even hear your prayers. So what does man's little g "government" do? They institute a tax on labor and then try to make anyone who refuses to participate - a quote "criminal." And, as it is today, the great majority - by far - the great majority of people living in the world today - everywhere - not just the U.S. - but everywhere - have been legislated into living a life that is diametrically opposed to the teachings of the Bible. And if and when a man realizes his need to repent, to come out so he can come into the Kingdom of Christ - the little g "governments" of men have made it quote "criminal behavior" to obey Christ.

Rutledge, the highway patrolman who declared war on me, told me that I was quote - "involved in a criminal enterprise." Alright. If living a life that is conforming to the Kingdom of Christ is a "criminal enterprise" then so be it. Guilty. You murdered my Lord - His servants are not above Him. Verse 6, Ephesians 2:

[6] And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

[7] That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

[8] For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

[9] Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Salvation comes when the mind is changed to accept saving faith - which by the grace of God is made available to anyone who will accept His free gift. My question to you today - and I know the answer to this question from a lot of you - "Have you accepted saving faith into your life?"

If you have - then you are saved. And it's not by any work that you have done. It is from your choice of embracing saving faith - that system of belief based on the truths contained in God's Word - you have accepted it - you understand what it means that Christ is King, His Kingdom is now. You can see that the course of this world, you can see that friendship with the world is enmity with God. You see these things.

But that does not mean you have instantly achieved sinless perfection. That doesn't mean you have instantly freed yourself from the entanglements of the world. It does mean that you have identified it. It does mean that you can't stand it any longer. But it doesn't mean you've achieved sinless perfection.

Listen to me, in Old Covenant Israel, carrying around paper money, having a bank account in Babylon, those things very well could have brought the death penalty in the Old World. I get it. And I'm not excusing our sin today. How can I? In light of all that we've seen from Scripture. But I'm telling you that salvation comes from changing the mind. Then, as Christ leads us and shows us the way out of the course of this world - and into His paths - then we walk accordingly. Again, I'm not excusing it. Can't do it. But I realize that the older a man gets, the harder it is.

I'm not saying - have never said - if we have not achieved sinless perfection - we are not in Christ. The Scripture says:

Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

With that said - we better not use that as an excuse. We can take some comfort in it - but it must never be an excuse to be comfortable in the course of this world knowing that the object of our salvation is to Come out from among them and be separate.

You have a bank account? Again, I'm talking to the 40+. Ok. Not excusing that one bit, not going to do it. But at least, just use to cash checks then get that paper out of there. Your deposits help them do their dirty deeds. As much as it pains me to say it - get back to making your purchases with folding green cash - as much as you possibly can. Yeah. The cash is bad, I know it. You know it. We all know it. But it's better than credit cards. It's better than Apple Pay. God forbid that we should be involving ourselves in things like that.

I've told people this many many times - and most people just look at me - like they don't have any idea what I said or why it's important. Rutledge told us, quote: "We couldn't track you, because all your family does is deal in cash."

Well, good grief, I would think that anyone that's ever heard that would say, "Oh wow, maybe I better start dealing in cash." But the patriot types love to talk about the big, bad evil government and all the things they are doing and want to do - but then they never talk about how the little g "government" can track every thing people buy - because they use credit cards, phones, etc.

Think about this for a minute. He said - "We couldn't track you, because all your family does is deal in cash." Wait a minute. Did he just admit to having access to people's bank accounts? Or their credit cards? "But they have to have a court order to access that stuff." Really? Are we that naive?

Again, now, remember, I'm talking to the 40+ people right now. Those that have been entrenched in the course of this world for a long long time - and are maybe just now realizing their need to come out.

For the rest of you, you guys need to make sure you never get involved with the course of this world - and you need to find ways to make sure you don't. Don't sit around and wait and hope that someone is going to do it all for you. Someone's going to figure out for you how to live without a bank account or live without a social security number. You figure it out. You commit to living without those courses of the world. Trust God that He will be faithful to your faithfulness and He will provide a way....hang on. Let's look at something else real quick - before we get to today's message.

Oh goodness. There was another passage of Scripture I wanted to get to and almost forgot. Before we go to Corinthians, turn over to I Timothy 2. I wanted to show you one more thing about salvation. You've heard me say a hundred times that faith - Biblical saving faith - is a system of belief based on the truths of Scripture. Faith is not some mystical, pie-in-the-sky, hope for something to be true or for something to come to pass. Faith is believing the Word of God - believing the Word of God - rightfully divided as truth. I Timothy 2, verse 1.

I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

Now look at verse 4;

[4] Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

Being quote "saved" is coming to the knowledge of the truth. That's what happens when we, by grace, when we have come to the knowledge of the truth - faith - a system of belief based on the knowledge of the truth.

If the Word of God must be rightly divided - then you can rest assured that it can be wrongly divided. And, when a man's faith - his system of belief - has been shaped or molded in any way - by the quote "church" and the "churchman" - then I'm telling you - he better reexamine every single thing he has ever been taught about the Bible, about God, about Christ, about prophecy, about the Kingdom - everything.

Jerry, the young man that is involved with my daughter, said to me yesterday how amazing it is to him that men who have been preaching the Bible for 50, 60 years - have never been able to understand or teach the simple truths regarding Scripture.

I told him it's just like someone who is building a building. If that foundation is off, then every single thing, every other thing in that building is going to be off. If the foundation isn't square, and you start building on that foundation, your building is going to be off. It's going to affect the rest of the building.

And that's what has happened. Jerry said, "Well, don't they study for themselves?" It's hard for me to say. How come none of them talk about the word "church?" How come none of them expose C.I. Scofield's heresy related to the word "generation" in Matthew 24? How come they teach that people who do not even believe in Jesus Christ, Yeshua the Christ - how can they STILL call those people, "God's Chosen People?"

Alright, back to I Corinthians 10:13. Please turn there. Especially you younger people. Of course, I do not believe this passage of Scripture has an age requirement, but I especially want the young people to see this.

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

The temptation that is common to man - what is that? Ephesians 2 says that a temptation that is common to all men is to walk according to the course of this world. Paul said that all of them had done it. That is common to all men.

Being reminded from Isaiah 45 of the need to escape the nations - the same language is used here in I Corinthians 10:13. God is faithful - who will with that temptation - is not going to allow you to be tempted to the point of no escape - no place to turn - no way to obey - He will with the temptation - also make a way to escape - so that you may be able to bear it.

Stay faithful while you are young. Then, when you are older, you won't be caught in the tentacles of the beast that is the course of this world. Do not get yourself in debt. If you need something or think you need something - and you don't have the means to purchase it right now - outright - without being in debt - then you don't need it. If you think you need something - and the only way to get it is to use an identifying number from a little g "government" - then you don't need it. God will provide. He didn't tell you to live a certain way - then not make it where you couldn't. Learn to overcome the world. That's what Christ said - over and over and over.

Alright. Let's get to the message this morning.

Last week, we were in James chapter 4. We had a lengthy, although not lengthy enough discussion on the word adultery. I made the statement that I believe the sin of adultery goes beyond just sexual sins with a married woman. I believe we should include the word adulterate into the discussion.

Webster's 1828 Dictionary gives the following for the word adulterate.

ADUL'TERATE, verb transitive [Latin adultero, from adulter, mixed, or an adulterer; ad and alter, other.]

To corrupt, debase, or make impure by an admixture of baser materials; as, to adulterate liquors, or the coin of a country.

ADUL'TERATE, verb intransitive To commit adultery. obsolete

ADUL'TERATE, adjective Tainted with adultery; debased by foreign mixture.

I said this in relation to vaccines specifically. I have believed this for many years, more than 35 years. This is one of the reasons why my children were all born at home. This is one of the reasons why my children were not taken to doctors. This is one of the reasons why my children were not put in schools. This is one of the reasons why I've never had a flu shot or any other vaccine since I was living at home.

Vaccines have, since their inception, recorded back in the late 1700s, they contain ingredients that alter God's creation. They are designed to change what God created in nature - and that is adultery. That is to adulterate. To corrupt, debase, or make impure by an admixture of baser materials. For whatever reason, I guess maybe because at that time the vaccine was not as prolific as liquor, but Webster used tainting of liquor in his definition - but - came right back and concluded that Adulterate was to debase by foreign mixture.

That is exactly what a vaccine does. Yes, we all have read at least the things these maniacs have admitted to regarding their stinking vaccines. From the use of aborted baby cells, to green monkey pus, to pig cells, chicken cells, polyethylene glycol, formaldehyde and on and on - and those things are terrible. Good grief, just the ingredients alone should make someone say no - but these things are making God's creation impure by an admixture of baser materials. And God's People must rise up and say "No."

I need for you to take your Bibles and turn to Revelation 18 this morning. We will begin in verse 1. Remember, please, that the book of Revelation is a history book. The book is a description of events that occurred in the first century. They describe Jerusalem and Rome.

If you ever listen to Sam Britton on his Off the Cuff Show, you will hear him repeatedly say that there are certain elements in the world today - who knows who they are - I think we can make educated guesses - my guesses would be Rhodes' Scholars. They would be the heads of the world's largest corporations. The heads of the U.S. little g "government" - England - Germany - France - and others. They would be the members that make up the World Economic Forum, the World Bank, and of course - all these members overlap. But Sam is of the opinion - and I am in 100% total agreement - that these evil men - have taken things from the Scripture - particularly from the book of Revelation and they are reenacting them on today's world stage.

Why not? To make people think that Bible Prophecy is being fulfilled today - makes people conclude there is nothing you can do about it. It's the plan of God. God has ordained it. Just sit back and make the best of it. And that is exactly what they have done and they have absolutely achieved their goal of complacency. Hopefully, we are waking people up to this lie. And there is absolutely something we can do about it - and we better be doing something about it.

But what we are going to read in Revelation 18, I believe, eerily looks like the United States today. But it is not. Just like I have reminded you many times before - the quote "antichrist" from the first century has been dead and gone for a long long time - BUT - the first century saints were warned to abstain from the SPIRIT of antichrist. What we are seeing in the course of the world is absolutely - the SPIRIT of antichrist and we are to be overcomers, resisters, exposers - and we are to fight against anything and anyone who is functioning in the spirit of antichrist. With that said, Revelation 18:1.

[1] And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

[2] And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

[3] For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

For the last, at least 75 years or so, it cannot be mistaken that the United States of America has been the world leader. Today, it is easily seen that the United States of America has led nearly every single nation in the world into its demonic, satanic antichrist economic system. The U.S. has been the world standard, thanks to Hollywood, thanks to the military, thanks to their sports' heroes, etc., but it has been the light bearer for all things - New World Order - everywhere - except for the Muslim nations that have remained a thorn in their side.

[4] And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

[5] For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

Has America's sins reached unto heaven? It is impossible to watch something on television for more than a little while, without seeing the freaks, queers and perverts kissing each other now. The people are bombarded with ads concerning their wicked economic system - from Wall Street to so worldly so welcome. Now, ads include how that if you don't wear a mask, you don't love your neighbor. America is not only the most sinful nation on earth - but it is the leader in doing so. And is quite proud of it.

While America is NOT Babylon the Great from Revelation 18 - the principle to Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues - is still applicable for today.

Mixed in between all the other ads promoting America's many sins, at least every other commercial on TV or on the Internet is about some drug. And we'll get to that in a minute. Verse 6.

[6] Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

[7] How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

[8] Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

[9] And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

Again, this is a history book concerning Jerusalem and Rome in the first century - but friends - these principles remain today.

[10] Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

[11] And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

[12] The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

[13] And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

[14] And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

[15] The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

[16] And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

[17] For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, [18] And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

[19] And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

[20] Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

[21] And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

[22] And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

[23] And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

Quite possibly, at least today, there are two great sins that America is leading the way in. I believe there is enough support from the Scripture to say that the sin of sodomy is at the very top of the list. I believe from Romans 1 we can conclude that the sin of sodomy is as far away from God a man can get - seeing that God gives them over to a reprobate mind. A mind that cannot ever recover.

Directly below the sin of sodomy is the sin of sorcery. America not only leads the world in sodomy today - but America has proven - in the last two weeks - that is the world-wide leader in the sin of sorcery and is causing most - if not all the nations of world to drink from the cup of her sorceries.

I wonder how many of you know this. I would suspect that many of you listening to me - by the fact that you listen to someone like me - you probably already know this. But I suspect that many do not also. Thank God I have a lot of people listening to me that are in the teens still and in there 20s and I suspect they may not know what I'm getting ready to tell them.

As soon as you are able to, get a hold of a Strong's Concordance so that you can look at the word sorceries as it's found in Revelation 18:23. You can trust the online version to match the printed version as long as you are making sure you are reading under the heading Strong's Definitions. This is what it says:

φαρμακεία pharmakeía, far-mak-i'-ah; from G5332; medication ("pharmacy"), i.e. (by extension) magic (literally or figuratively):—sorcery, witchcraft.

Notice it says from 5332. 5332 is pharmakeeous - which means druggist.

The Greek word for sorceries in Revelation 18:23 is where we get the word pharmacy and the person operating the pharmacy is a druggist.

I can tell you that in my lifetime - in all of the 58 years that my mother said I've been here - I could count on one hand how many times I've been inside a pharmacy. And I hope that those of you listening to me preach today - have been in your last pharmacy after today.

Today, the U.S. is leading the world in sorcery. Now of course, just like they have done with every other important word in the Bible, the "church" and the "churchmen" have taken this word - and with the help of Hollywood - they've made into something other than what it is. They want you to believe that sorcery is what the long-haired, naked tribesman from the darkest parts of Africa engage in. With their potions and their spells and stuff like that. No way is it the guy on Main Street with the white coat and the spotless counter tops and the perfectly labeled vials with the child-proof bottles.

I visited a "churchman" website the other day for their perspective on sorcery - and their answer was - "it's illicit drugs versus properly licensed drugs." Of course, if the little g "government" has licensed it - then according to the "churchman" it's perfectly fine to take. That's because the standard for the "churchman" is the definition of good and evil, right and wrong - from the little g "government" - of course it is - because the "church" and the "churchman" are merely the religious arm of the state.

This is why in the coming year, you will see full blown adultery - adulteration - people will be lining the streets, standing outside the doors getting ready to enter the quote "church" so they can be vaccinated. You wait and see.

The Greek word for sorceries is pharmakeia from where we get the word pharmacy - and the world of pharmakeía in the U.S. is a designer of drugs, of potions of spells that adulterate the natural state in which God created men and followers of Christ have to tell people about this. They aren't using herbs of the field for medicine and healing. In fact, a lot of times - they have made the use of herbs for healing - that God created - and have turned people into quote "criminals" for using the things that God created for healing. Once again, the world is in need of being turned right side up.

I'm telling you, if it comes from the pharmacy - you better be careful. Just like if it comes from the quote "church" you better be careful. Tylenol won't hurt you. Read the label. Aspirin won't hurt you. Read the label. I'm telling you - if it came from the pharmacy - you better be careful.

No, Revelation 18 is not a prophecy concerning the United States. I have to admit I can see how the misguided could conclude that - in fact - I wish they would - maybe then they would start to obey the command to Come out of her. It is a prophecy concerning Jerusalem and Rome in the first century - but because America chose the sons of disobedience from its inception - the principles contained in the book of Revelation can absolutely be found again - in every nation - not just the U.S. - in every people - every generation who chooses to continue walking according to the course of this world - that is going to be the end result.

For you young people that have never made agreements, signed documents, with the little g "governments" of men - don't do it. Stay faithful to Christ and His Kingdom.

For those of you older ones who did - seek to Come out. Look for ways to come out. See where God is leading - and when the door opens - don't just walk - run as fast as you can.

Brethren, I'm out of time. Please take these words as words of encouragement. They are words meant to strengthen you. To help you take the steps to Come out of her my people - so that we will not partake of her plagues.`

A NEW CREATION

Created bone of His bone
Created flesh of His flesh
I am a child whose father is the Almighty God
We were created in His image
His divine nature was imparted to me
And His royal blood now flows through my veins
I am a new creation, I was created by Him

And through Him we are infallible, indestructible a new class of men
And though the powers of hell may rage against me I stand triumphantly
With the armor of God to go about me I can stand victoriously.
