Preached first on 6/13/2021 on www.molibertyradio.us

Good morning everyone. Thank you for tuning into the message this morning. I am honored that you have taken the time to listen to the things that I have learned while following Christ attempting to be living separated from the world's systems and ideologies for more than 40 years. No, that is not and should not be taken as a prideful statement - that's not at all what it is - it's just a reminder again - that there's a reason - a big reason why I think people should listen to what I have to say in regards to the Bible and to the society that surrounds us. I have not lived as a U.S. citizen - not ever in my adult life. I've never believed that Romans 13 meant anything other than God's instructions for how the Ecclesia is to Govern the body of Christ - govern the body of Christ first - then the rest of the world after the body of Christ becomes obedient. I've never believed that Christ was telling His listeners to "Render unto Caesar" as if that meant pay taxes to the ungodly, unauthorized, unordained little g governments of this world. And my belief system - my faith - comes directly from the Word of God and from what I can clearly see in Nature.

As a result, my perspective of the Bible, my perspective for the way I believe the Bible teaches - is pretty much diametrically opposed to what 99.9% of the 501(c)(3) government preachers and churches teach. In fact, I'll go so far as to say - my perspective on virtually every single - everything - thing they teach is the total opposite one of another. And that being the case - of course - one is right - one is wrong.

If what I teach is wrong - in fact - I'd just about say that if one major doctrine is wrong - then you could almost cause the whole faith to fall like dominoes.

And, I say the same thing about churchianity - and I would in most cases - begin with an argument concerning whether or not Bible prophecy has been fulfilled. Take away their argument against Fulfilled Bible Prophecy and their system of faith falls like dominoes.

Ask them to do an honest study on the word "church" - and let's see what happens. From the very onset - we've got a major problem with the system of faith that has produced churchianity. Churchianity and Christianity are not the same thing. No more than the United States of America and America are the same thing. We're not talking apples and apples.

Please continue to pray for Larry Blanchard. Thank you, Matthew for delivering this message so that I could pass it on this morning. Larry says, "I am feeling stronger daily for which I offer praise and worship to our God. I believe I am stabilizing. I get fatigued in the evening but responding to God's pace in the healing process. Thank you for all your intercessions! Blessings." He then said that he still does not have his voice back. But if he keeps improving, maybe he can talk with Sam in the end of what they call June. So let's continue to pray for that.

Please continue to pray for Chris in the Wisconsin jail. Last week I told you I had not heard from him in more than a week. This past week I contacted his son to check on him. Well, guess what? Since Chris has been in the jail, the jail has come up with a new policy. Inmates in the jail are only allowed to call people who are registered with the jail and who provide a photocopy of a state driver's license. Then, once someone gets on the approved jail list - a captive can make a call to that person.

Isn't that amazing how that policy just got started since Chris was calling me on a regular basis when he got taken captive? The pure wickedness of these demented people - taking counsel - conspiring to continue harming God's chosen ones. The funny thing - not funny haha - but the thing about this is - they aren't harming us - they are harming themselves because this principle is still true today:

[34] Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

[35] For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

[36] Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

[37] Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

[38] When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

[39] Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

[40] And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

[41] Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

[42] For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

[43] I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

[44] Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

[45] Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

[46] And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Speaking of Larry Blanchard and the possibility that there could be something to the shedding theory of vaxxers making non-vaxxers sick - Michael sent me a link to an article in Discovery Magazine from all the way back in 1995. It is a fascinating read. I'll include the link with the message link. It's the story of Gloria Ramirez. Gloria had been rushed into the emergency room in a Riverside California hospital - and to make a very very long story short - several of the emergency room nurses and others who had come into contact with Gloria - got very very sick. Apparently Gloria's body was shedding something mysterious and those who got close to her - and I believe - most or all of them were other women - got very sick.

For weeks quote "experts" analyzed all the details of the events trying to find out the source of the outbreak caused by Gloria's skin or by her blood - they never really did figure it out. They think they did - and I'm just going to refer you to the article - but I will read to you the last three paragraphs of the lengthy story, for what they concluded happened in this hospital in Riverside California in 1995, quote:

Andresen's team is going to conduct more experiments and check Ramirez's blood again; soon they hope to turn their preliminary report into a paper they will submit to a refereed forensic journal. Then, thanks to the publicity of the Riverside case, they'll have no problem shifting from one eldritch tale to another. They're swamped with calls and letters urging them to get to the bottom of a host of mysteries, from Gulf War syndrome — the symptoms suffered by some U.S. soldiers who fought in the Persian Gulf — to sudden infant death syndrome. People are frustrated and want us to look at these cases from a chemistry point of view, says Andresen.

Fourteen months after the incident, the Riverside case's legacy remains peculiar and shadowy. If Andresen's team is right, one has to wonder whether the outbreak was unique. For now, researchers can't find a similar poisoning in the medical annals, nor can they say whether hospitals should fret about future cases. The Livermore scientists do offer a cautionary note in their report, which recommends that hospitals be made aware of the possible consequences of such a chemical reaction occurring in their emergency rooms. Other scientists are more convinced that action is necessary. This is likely to occur again — DMSO is not uncommon, asserts Barry Taylor, a microbiologist at Loma Linda University School of Medicine who has followed the case closely.

In the end, the Riverside case leaves us with a warning and a puzzle. The warning is that the human body can be a place where bizarre — and potentially deadly — chemistry can occur. The puzzle is that if the Livermore investigators are wrong, then what did happen in the Riverside emergency room on February 19, 1994? End quote.

I think we should read this article to see what we can maybe learn between the lines. But I also think we need to be very careful, as well, and not fall for the fear factor it tries to create. Remember - the enemies of Christ love to try to keep people in fear. We are not to live in fear.

There were lawsuits filed - of course - as a result of what took place - and one of the hospital side of the lawsuit's lawyers - claimed that the sicknesses were caused by mass hysteria - a sort of psychosis brought on by strange smell of Gloria's body. Interesting. So, go take a look at that article. It's long but interesting and read it in light of what is being said about the theory of shedding.

My friend Dave Baugh - who is a Facebook warrior for Christ - sent me a commentary that he wrote this week and I have put it on the comments page of the website. When you have an extra minute, please go there and read what Dave has to say. It's really good.

This coming week, on the 16th, I have been asked to present an argument in a debate, I guess you might say, with the title, "Should Christians obey Caesar?" Well, can you figure out which side I would be taking?

The event is supposed to take place at the Panera Bread Company on north Kansas in Springfield - apparently they have a conference room that can hold quite a few people. Lord willing, we will get a good quality recording and I'll get it up on the website as soon as I can. If any of you are near the area and can stop in and sit on our side of the aisle - that would be great. It is supposed to begin at 6pm and the room is reserved until 8. We'll be there early probably to eat - then I have books to set up to offer those who have never heard the Gospel.

I saw and heard something in the news this week and I want to share it with you - because it goes directly towards the message this morning - as we are continuing - the faith once delivered to the saints.

This is Chuck Todd and Anthony Fauci. I want you to listen to this. It's just about a minute.

An attack on Fauci is an attack on science. All right then. So, for the follower of Christ, I think we better figure out what an attack on science is. If we attack Fauci's lies - which he has committed over and over and over - are we attacking science? Stay with me - and we'll get to it - eventually. Because this is actually the subject of the message of the faith once delivered to the saints this morning.

I thought it was interesting that Chuck Todd - and if you see the video - his facial expressions are priceless - because I think he really believes the garbage he spews - but he said that people in Russia have a really great quote "vaccine" but they won't take it because they don't quote "trust their quote 'government.'" And he's just perplexed at why people in the U.S. who should be worshiping their flawless quote "government" - because everybody trusts them - won't take the perfectly safe quote "vaccine." It's laughable watching these nutjobs trying to convince themselves and the mindless zombies that believe them.

A good friend of mine asked me this week if I believed the numbers - I think they claim it's over 200 million now - who have taken the jab. The first thought says no, because every word that comes from their mouths is usually a lie. And, another, if so many people are taking it - why do they have to bribe so many others to take it? Fifteen million dollar lotteries? Free beer. Free baseball tickets. How stupid. If the plandemic was so real - and they had developed a quote "vaccine" people would have flocked to it - and even paid for it - but the vile thing is free - and they can't even give it away - and they have to resort to bribery to get people to take it.

Who knows? God knows. But for us - keep resisting. Keep fighting against it. Say no. My body, my choice. If you are being compelled relentlessly to take the jab - just identify as someone who is quote "vaccinated." The queers and the freaks can identify with whatever they want - well - we'll just identify as quote "vaccinated." Of course, that's a feeble attempt at humor. No we won't. We're not going to identify with something that is evil. We will not identify with evil no matter what comes our way. Stand fast - fight fast in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free.

I am officially done with Walmart. I believe I have been in my last Walmart store yesterday. I went in to buy some paper so we could print the items for Taylor's baby shower - for those who may not have known - our middle daughter, Taylor and her husband Kristopher are expecting their first baby around the first of what the world calls September. We're all very excited! But I went into Walmart to buy some paper and the second I walked in the door - the first thing I heard was an alarm going off. It was a new sounding one, too. Ominous. I didn't like it all. First thing it reminded me of was a buzzer sound from jail or something like that. But it was an alarm of some kind - and I didn't like it. I knew it had nothing to do with me so I kept walking. Then, a few seconds later - I heard it again. A few seconds after that - I heard it again. The alarm kept going off for pretty much the whole time I was in Walmart and each time I heard it - I hated it more and more. Finally, I found my paper and proceeded to the checkout. And you know, I never did find out what the alarm was for - but I got my paper and I looked for a line to get into and couldn't find one. They had replaced the entire checkout with a huge self-serve checkout. There was not one single line to get into where someone would take your quote "money" and send you on. Not one. It was all self-checkout.

So I'm figuring that the alarm I kept hearing was mistakes that people were making while they were self-checking themselves out. I don't know that for sure. But I think that might have been what was going on.

I asked one of the young ladies there if Walmart had replaced all the lines with self-checkout and she said, "Yes." I handed her my paper and told her I had been to my last Walmart. Of course, she could not have cared less. She probably worked at Lowe's last week. She'll probably be at Target or McDonald's next week. It didn't matter to her one bit whether I shopped at Walmart again.

I'm telling you - this is a forerunner of something worse yet to come. It's a huge step forward to the cashless society. I'll be sending an email to Walmart this week - which will probably not even be read - but I am going to do it anyway. This is just totally ridiculous. I've been to my last one.

Now, one more thing I saw this week. This is good, this is exciting. In Czeckoslovakia - right alongside the other ATMs that are available is a new gold ATM. It only accepts cash. It is totally anonymous - a person puts in cash - and out comes real gold. How about that? That is totally awesome. Take the quote “governments” vile, garbage excuse for currency - put it into a machine right there on the street - and out comes God's money.

Now, would that take place in the U.S.? Doubtful. It would probably fall under the stupidest named quote “crime” - called money laundering. Think about that name. Money laundering. That is exactly what people SHOULD BE doing. They should be taking the vile, garbage currency that the quote “government” puts out - and laundering it - cleaning it - turning it into gold or silver - which the Bible - as clearly as anything can be shown from Scripture - says is God's currency. Christians - just like brain-washing our dirty minds - we should be laundering - making clean - the quote “governments” vile excuse for currency - and turning it into something that God says is clean - which is gold and silver.

Way to go Czeckoslovakia - whoever it is that's responsible for the gold ATMs that are making it easy for people to take their worthless dirty paper quote “money” and turn it into gold.

If you recall, in the very first message that most of you ever heard me preach, I made the statement that we should not take any word for granted. Especially Words that are in the Bible - but then again - as followers of Christ - what should our Words be? What definitions of those Words should we be using? Not just Bible Words - all of our words.

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceedeth from the mouth of God.

As I am most days, I'm not terribly concerned with what the world is doing. The world is doing what they do. None of it, none of what they do surprises me. They are mostly insane - all you have to do is listen to them talk - watch their behaviour - they are nuts and they are nuts because that's what the outcome is for people who do not believe in the Laws of God - as in their total applicability today. I expect the world to be insane.

I am mostly concerned with what people who call themselves followers of Christ. That's the focus of my ministry - has been so for pretty much the whole time. Judgement begins at the house of God - and if we can get the House of God in order - maybe we can reach others in the asylum. But we have to get our House in order first. Well, it would be great if we had a house to begin with. We've been living in someone else's house for pretty much our entire existence. We've got a house. In fact, we've got mansions. All we have to do is move in.

So, I've been trying to first get people who claim to be followers of Christ to realize we have our own house that was given to us. Built on the Rock. It's the greatest house ever built.

If we would get moved in, wow, just think of all the promises that God gave to His Sons and Daughters when they obey Him and move into his house. Why in the world we do not prefer that is beyond me.

Anyway, so I'm trying to get those who claim the name of Christ - well here we go again - we first need to understand we have a house - then we need to understand what in the name of means - which means - by whose Authority are you living? "Who gave you the Authority to live in that house? You are supposed to live in our house and live by our rules. How dare you think you can live in your own house with a set of rules different than ours?"

The response to that? Easy. Go take your arguments to my Father. Yeah, as simplistic as it sounds, I believe it would be just like that when we move into our Father's house and decide to live by His rules.

So I've been trying for all these years to get people who claim Christ to realize what they have been given and taken the necessary steps of obedience to claim our inheritance. And part of that - a big part of it - is living exclusively by the Word of God. I fully believe that if I can take the Word of God - and skillfully use it - like a sword - or like a surgeon's knife - if and when men are persuaded that "Thus saith the Lord" really means something - I believe change will occur - and it could happen very fast.

It isn't necessary again this week to read Jude 1-5. We are talking about the system of belief once - one time - delivered to the saints - in the first century. We must believe the same things they did. We must believe the same way they did. If we don't - we don't have the common salvation. We surely may think we do. And Lord knows nearly everyone out there sure thinks they do - but I'm telling you - that what the great majority of people believe is Biblical faith - resembles absolutely nothing from what the first century believers had.

Look with me this morning to Romans chapter 14. Let's begin in verse 11, and we'll try to get through to the last verse [11] For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

Will you stop here for just a minute and look at this. This is the faith - the system of belief - once delivered to the saints. Paul had just said,

For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

[8] For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

Then he said, it is written, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess.

Okay, Paul. Where was that written? Keep your finger here and turn to Isaiah 45. Let's begin in verse 18;

[18] For thus saith Yahweh that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am Yahweh; and there is none else.

[19] I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I Yahweh speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

[20] Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

[21] Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I Yahweh? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

[22] Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

[23] I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

Paul is talking about Isaiah 45 when he is teaching in Romans 14.

Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations - and every knee shall bow.

For those who have assembled and escaped the nations - those are the ones who have bowed the knee. For men who will not assemble - men who love the nations - just like in the audio of Chuck Todd and Fauci - where they talked about loving their nations - those are men who not only refuse to escape the nations - but they would be men who would do everything in their power to prevent others from escaping the nations. Now that we know where Paul was talking about concerning what was written - let's go back to Romans 14 and continue. Verse 12.

[12] So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

[13] Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

[14] I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

[15] But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

[16] Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

[17] For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

[18] For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

[19] Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

[20] For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

[21] It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

[22] Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

[23] And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Verses 22 and 23 are the sum of the reason why I read chapter 14 this morning. The conclusion of all in this chapter is whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

And again, what is faith? It's a man's system of belief. And our faith has to be the faith once delivered to the saints - anything other than that faith - that system of belief - is sin.

Colossians 3:16-17

[16] Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

[17] And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Everything we do, everything we say, everything we sing - which is another reason why I am so concerned that the body of Christ does not have a lot of good, Godly music to listen to. Church music is like wading through the sewer to get to good water - many times - but sadly - that's about all we have if we want to listen to something that's even remotely wholesome. I have to pick and choose - a lot - good things to listen to - it's hard. We need more Godly, Biblical music to listen to.

As followers of Christ - everything we do, say, sing, is supposed to be to the glory of God.

Our Words - our Words should all be by, through, and to Christ.

I said all of that to finally get to this point - our Words - the way we speak - our understandings of things - has to be based on the Words of God. Because that's what those who had the faith once delivered to them - that's what they did.

So Fauci says that an attack on him is an attack on science. Really? I guess maybe in their world - because their world is so far away from our world - or at least it's supposed to be - it's truly become they believe that midnight is noon - and noon is midnight.

For us - for those of us who live by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God. When I heard him say that an attack on him was an attack on science - I actually laughed out loud.

Turn with me please to I Timothy chapter 6. I want to show you why it was so funny hearing Fauci say what he said about science. I Timothy chapter 6, verses 19-21:

[19] Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

[20] O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

[21] Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

As most of you know I do not believe what the quote “scientists” say concerning the shape of the world. I do not believe what NASA says - in fact - if I happened to be forced to listening to someone from NASA speak - and they actually stated that it was 12 o'clock noon - I'd probably have to walk outside, or look out the window to verify it. Because I don't believe them - I don't believe a word they say. That's not where I'm headed in this message. I will take a minute again though to say that what the quote “scientists” say about the shape of the world, what they say about the origins of the world, what they say about the sun, moon and the stars - what they say - does not agree with the Bible. IT does not agree with the Words proceeding out of the mouth of God.

Say what you want to to me. Call me an idiot, call me a moron, whatever you want to - I am going to believe what the Bible says about this world - and anyone who tells me otherwise - I'm not going to listen to them. And after we get through with this message this morning - I hope you will see just how bad it is to even call a man who calls himself a quote “scientist” but does not claim that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, He set up His Kingdom and every knee is to bow and every tongue is to confess that He alone is Lord - if we refer to anyone who does not make that statement - if we call them a scientist - it is because we do not know our Bibles.

Every Word of God is what we are supposed to live by. We should know the Words of God, we should know what they mean - we should live, talk, and breathe by those Words - because the ones who had the faith once delivered to them - they certainly did.

Now again, I realize that over the course of 2,000 years - men have done all they could do to change the Words of God - alter the Words of God - even adopt the Words of God to try to make them their own - all in attempts to deceive people - which is meant to keep people from finding the King and His Kingdom.

Fauci says that he is a scientist and attacking him is attacking science.

Alright. Maybe in the deceived world that he lives in - but for us - it should not be so.

The word science as found in I Timothy 6:20 comes from the Greek gnosis, meaning knowledge or as Strong's says science - not sure why Strong uses the same word to define the word - but in the Biblical sense of the word - as found here in I Timothy 6:20 the word means *knowledge signifies in general intelligence, understanding the general knowledge of Christian religion the deeper more perfect and enlarged knowledge of this religion, such as belongs to the more advanced

esp. of things lawful and unlawful for Christians moral wisdom, such as is seen in right living*

Thayer's Lexicon says this about the word gnosis - as found in other passages of Scripture.

γνῶσις, -εως, ἡ, (γινώσκω), [from Thucydides down], knowledge: with the genitive of the object, σωτηρίας, Luke 1:77; τοῦ θεοῦ, the knowledge of God, such as is offered in the gospel, 2 Corinthians 2:14, especially in Paul's exposition of it, 2 Corinthians 10:5; τῆς δόξης τοῦ θεοῦ ἐν προσώπῳ Χριστοῦ, 2 Corinthians 4:6; Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ, of Christ as a saviour, Philippians 3:8; 2 Peter 3:18; with subjunctive genitive τοῦ θεοῦ, the knowledge of things which belongs to God, Romans 11:33. γνῶσις, by itself, signifies in general intelligence, understanding: Ephesians 3:19; the general knowledge of the Christian religion, Romans 15:14; 1 Corinthians 1:5; the deeper, more perfect and enlarged knowledge of this religion, such as belongs to the more advanced, 1 Corinthians 12:8; 1 Corinthians 13:2, 8; 1 Corinthians 14:6; 2 Corinthians 6:6; 2 Corinthians 8:7; 2 Corinthians 11:6; especially of things lawful and unlawful for Christians,

I'm telling you these are all verses of Scriptures that have the word gnosis.

1 Corinthians 8:1, 7, 10f; the higher knowledge of Christian and divine things which false teachers boast of, ψευδῶνυμος γνῶσις, 1 Timothy 6:20 [cf. Holtzmann, Pastoralbriefe, p. 132f]; moral wisdom, such as is seen in right living, 2 Peter 1:5; and in contact with others: κατὰ γνῶσιν, wisely, 1 Peter 3:7. objective knowledge: what is known concerning divine things and human duties, Romans 2:20; Colossians 2:3; concerning salvation through Christ, Luke 11:52. Where γνῶσις and σοφία are used together the former seems to be knowledge regarded by itself, the latter wisdom as exhibited in action: Romans 11:33; 1 Corinthians 12:8; Colossians 2:3.

["γν. is simply intuitive, σοφ. is ratiocinative also; γν. applies chiefly to the apprehension of truths, σοφ. superadds the power of reasoning about them and tracing their relations." Bp. Lightfoot on Colossians, the passage cited. To much the same effect Fritzsche (on Romans, the passage cited), "γν. perspicientia veri, σοφ. sapientia aut mentis sollertia, quæ cognita intellectaque veritate utatur, ut res efficiendas efficiat." Meyer (on 1 Corinthians, the passage cited) nearly reverses Lightfoot's distinction; elsewhere, however (e. g. on Colossians, the passage cited, cf. 9), he and others regard σοφ. merely as the more general, γν. as the more restricted and special term. Cf. Lightfoot as above; Trench, § lxxv.]

This, and I hope you agree, is amazing. I went this week and visited several quote "science" websites. And I just wanted to give them an opportunity to explain the origins of man. Over and over - the world's quote "scientists" really think they have it all figured out. From the American Scientist website, here's an article about the origins of life. It starts out by saying:

As the frontiers of knowledge have advanced, scientists have resolved one creation question after another. We now have a pretty good understanding of the origin of the Sun and the Earth, and cosmologists can take us to within a fraction of a second of the beginning of the universe itself.

Wow. That's amazing. You can take us to within a fraction of a second of the beginning of the universe itself? This statement alone - proves exactly what I said when I started this message. The world is insane. What an arrogant statement to make - and friends - for those of us who claim to be followers of Christ to give this one ounce of credence or respectability - we should be ashamed.

I went on an read - while I skimmed - let me say - because this thing went on for pages and pages - I was looking for anything - the tiniest little shred or hint of some sort of - even a pittance to God as the Creator - and there was absolutely nothing. And knowing that the word science means the knowledge of God. How dare these men take to themselves the word science - and make absolutely no mention of God whatsoever.

Instead, here is a just an excellent example of men taking something from the Word of God - twisting into something it does not say or mean - and then deceiving many many people into believing it.

The Word science - to the believer - to the follower of Christ - means the knowledge of God, the things of God. And if someone wants to discuss the origins of life or the origins of the universe - apart from the knowledge of God - no way. Not for the follower of Christ.

Webster's 1828 - the first definition of science is this:

In a general sense, knowledge, or certain knowledge ; the comprehension or understanding of truth or facts by the mind. The science of God must be perfect.

There is only one other place in the KJV or the Geneva also, (I believe), the word science is found. And that's in Daniel 1:4. It speaks of Daniel, Ananiah, Hazariah and Mishrael and says they were Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

The word here in the Hebrew is mad-daw which means knowledge. That word mad-daw word is found 6 more times in the first 39 books and it is translated as knowledge. It's the knowledge of God.

The word "science" or "scientist" has been hijacked. It does not mean what it has commonly been known as accepted as. With all this said about the word "science" in the Bible, go back and look again at I Timothy 6. Look at verses 20 and 21 again.

[20] O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

[21] Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

He's saying that science is the faith - the faith once delivered to the saints - the knowledge of the truth of God - the knowledge of God that brings men to repentance - men oppose this science - which some professing have erred concerning the faith.

If someone were to call themselves a scientist, they should be saying they are one who believes, has the knowledge of God. That's what a scientist is. Many profess - even today - many profess - but they have erred concerning the faith.

Men today, like Fauci, of those of his ilk - are all men who have faith - they have a system of belief - but it is not according to the knowledge of God. NASA has faith. The NASA quote "scientists" have faith - and some of them even claim to be quote "christian" - they are not - they are "churchian" - but they are ones who profess and while professing - they have erred concerning the faith.

People in the world today - who claim quote "science" and their science is not according to the knowledge of God - friends - we are not to believe them. If you happen to hear their voice - and I know it's hard to not to hear them from time to time - and actually I listen from time to time - purely for message material - but we are not to believe them.

Paul pleaded with Timothy -

This is the faith once delivered to the saints. I so believe that if we would make sure these are our faith - our systems of belief - we would be so much farther in our generation towards Ecclesia - towards living in the house - the mansion that God prepared for His Sons and Daughters.

This week, I heard about a Florida community that wanted to quote "pass some legislation to make sure Trump couldn't get into their community." So, what was their plan? They were going to outlaw casinos. How sad. The world - as lost as they are - has the sense to know that if they wanted to ban Donald Trump - they should outlaw casinos.

But millions and millions of professing - friends not just "churchians" but professing Christians - are still hanging onto Trump. The man is the most pro-sodomite quote president to ever be in that position. He accomplished more for the pro-israeli agenda in four years - than any other quote "president" before him - and he has built his quote "empire" with casinos. Now, if the U.S. - in the minds of churchians and even professing "Christians" is so bad - that their choice - the lesser of two evils is Donald Trump - wouldn't that cause some people to scratch their heads and think there must be something else out there?

There is something else out there. It's the Kingdom of God. It's the King and His Kingdom and it's 100% perfect. The Laws are flawless. The King is flawless. His ways are perfect and just - and all we have to do is walk through the door and into His house - the house - the nation - that He has prepared.

In closing this morning, I want you to look at a passage that we've seen before. But in light of our topic - the faith once delivered to the saints - I want us to look at it again. Freshly, from the eyes of those that first heard this - the faith - the system of belief once delivered to the saints. This is II Corinthians 6, verse 1.

II Cor.6

[1] We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

[2] (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

I realize that this was written in the first century. Written to people who were about to experience the greatest salvation in the history of mankind. Jerusalem was soon to be destroyed. Not only were their spirits to be saved - but their bodies also. But this is an eternal principle. From generation to generation - now is the accepted time. Now is the day of salvation. We've put off the building of the Kingdom long enough. We've been living under someone else's roof long enough - being held to the rules of the household for long enough. Today is the day. Now is the time. Verse 3.

[3] Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

[4] But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

And I'll say it again right here - the scientists - the scientist must be the minister of God. If he is not the minister of God - he is science falsely so-called.

- [5] In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;
[6] By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,
[7] By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
[8] By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;
[9] As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;
[10] As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
[11] O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

Once again, it shows time and place and the people to whom this was written. But these are eternal, generational principles that extend through all generations. They are for us.

- [12] Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.
[13] Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.
[14] Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?
[15] And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?
[16] And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
[17] Wherefore (because of this) come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,
[18] And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

You know, if you've listened to me preach once or a hundred times - you know that I teach time, place and people. Paul was pleading with the men and women, boys and girls in the first century - to Come out from among them and be separate. But this is not just something that was for them. This is a principle given to them - but also for us. This is eternal. This transcends all generations. This is the faith -the system of belief - once delivered to the saints.

We want to see the work of God in our lives and in our generation. I have to believe that. I have to have hope in that. This is how it happens. It doesn't happen apart from this. This is science. This is the knowledge of God. This is what living by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God means.

For too long, we've thought we were commanded by God to live as foreigners in other people's houses. We thought God told us to be good citizens of the world and obey and wait for deliverance. But that isn't Bible. That's not the Bible way. That's not the faith - the system of belief once delivered to the saints.

Today, we live in a society run by people like Fauci. Fauci is the epitome of science falsely so-called. We live in a society run by people like Trump, and Biden and Harris. These people are affecting our lives - the way we live. It should not be so for those of us called by the name - the Authority of Christ. Those are all strange voices. They are wolves in - you know what - they're not even disguising themselves any longer. They aren't wolves in sheeps clothing - they're just straight out wolves. They aren't even trying to hide.it. They are what they are - and are not the least bit ashamed of it.

If we want Him to be a Father unto us, and to be His sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Then

[14] Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

[15] And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

What about scientists who are not teaching the knowledge of God?

[16] And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

[17] Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,
