

Message# 156 - 9-12-2021 - Predestination vs Whosoever Will

Preached first on 9/12/2021 on www.molibertyradio.us

Good morning everyone. I'm glad that you have taken the time to listen to the message this morning. It's been quite a red letter month for our family so far.

Teresa and I celebrated 32 years of marriage last week, then this week, as many of you know, our daughter delivered our third grandbaby. Poppy Ann Ramer was born on the 8th at 8:53am. She was 6 pounds 10 ounces and 20" long. Taylor called the evening before to tell Teresa that her water broke. And Teresa said she was just laughing about it - being Poppy was her first baby - this was another of the many brand new experiences for Taylor - then she said - "Mom, I think you better come on." So we gathered up Teresa and Chrissy's things and headed towards Taylor and Kristopher's house. They are 2 and a half hours away. And of course, here is another great example as to why Ecclesia is a must.

We got there about midnight. I checked in on Taylor for a minute - told her how much I loved her and was proud of her for what she was going through - and then Jerry and I got back in the car and drove back home. Of course, when I got home - my eyes were burning - I don't do no sleep very well - and I could do was think about my baby girl - yeah - I know - she's almost 22 - which is just mind-blowing - but she's still just a baby to me - and now she was going through the hardest thing she has ever gone through in her life - and doing it at home - with a midwife - with her mother and her sister by her side - which I believe is exactly the way God intended it to be. But anyway, eyes burning - I couldn't get to sleep. Just laid there and looked at the ceiling. Then, at some point, I did doze off.

My phone woke me up at 8 - and I saw that I missed a text from Teresa at 7:46 saying that Taylor had the urge to push. I wanted to call - but knowing from my own past experiences five times - the time for phone calls was over - I just had to sit there and wait until the baby was finally born. At just a minute or so after 8:53, Teresa called and I could hear little Poppy crying in the background and I knew that truly:

"Joy cometh in the morning."

So I hurried into the shower and got ready and was back on the road by 9:30 and up to see Taylor and Baby Poppy. I got there at about noon and was holding our new little grandbaby in just a few minutes. How awesome. Truly a great great experience. Amazing how it was almost like holding one of Teresa and my own children - reliving that experience from many years ago. That bond - in that instant - is just indescribable.

Taylor is doing great. Baby is doing great. Kristopher is doing great. I will tell you, though, that once again, home birth reigns superior. The reason Taylor had such hard and long labor - besides Poppy being her first - is that Poppy decided to come out posterior. That's with her back facing outward. Taylor did a little research and found that only about 8% of all births - the baby is posterior. A "doctor" would not have put up with that. They more than likely would have drugged Taylor and the baby up and scared her into submitting to a C-section. But, since our family will not "Render unto Caesar" - Taylor wasn't cut on - and the baby still made it - alive and well - imagine that. And everything is just great.

I told Taylor - when she told me about those percentages - and overcoming them - that, "Yes, that's what we do - we overcome! Just like Christ told us to do." So, needless to say, our family is flying pretty high right now. And we thank you for all your prayers and for the kind emails that have come in. I passed them on to Taylor and Kristopher and I know they appreciate them, also.

Kingdom Conference Fall Edition is just around the corner now. We've had a few more signups this past week. Ted is coming and will be preaching 3 messages. Matthew is preaching, I'll be preaching. Paul is preaching. Jerry will be preaching. That will be interesting hearing Kingdom perspective from a young man. We'll have special things for the women. We always have a great time at the Conferences - and if you can make it - I just can't urge you enough to make plans to come. It's what the world calls October 28 through the 31st. Maranatha Bible Camp and Event Center, just outside of Springfield, Missouri. The facilities are fantastic. It's not expensive - and - don't you dare let money get in the way of you coming or not. If you can just get here - and you need help with the room - just let us know. God will provide for His people. He wants us to gather. This is not Ecclesia - but it's better than nothing. And God wants His people to come together and he'll make a way.

Great emails have continued to come in from this latest series. People are telling me that "holes in their faith - their system of belief - are getting filled. Answers to things they've often wondered about are coming to them." That's great. I am so happy to hear things like that.

In addition to that - there's been a couple things I have wanted to mention, but just have not had time to say them. I want you to be very careful when the unGodly "pass legislation" that seems to be throwing bones at righteousness. First off - they are incapable of doing such things. They are all citizens of a city that lie and love to make lies. When men put themselves in positions of making "laws" - they put themselves in a situation of impossibility - they cannot please God. Nothing they can do can or will please God. They are outside of the Will of God. Being outside of the Will of God puts them in a state of rebellion. And that's where they are. As a result - just like we read last week from the book of James - they are doubleminded - and as such - they are unstable in all their ways - like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

That's what the Book says. Add that to our faith - our system of belief - then trust it. That's what our job is. Our job is to obey the faith - the system of belief - once delivered to the saints - and I'll assure you - the book of James was delivered to the saints.

Two or three years ago - who knows - time flies by so fast - there was a baker in Colorado that refused to make a cake for a couple of freaks - queers - perverts - for their rebellion celebration. And at that time - nearly the whole u.s. was up in arms. Divided, of course. And, well, division is a good thing. Even in the Godless - or I really should say - "Yahwehless" society. They have a god - absolutely. They have many gods. Yahweh isn't one of them. But their society was divided. Some in support of the baker - whose government corporation refused to abide by established public policy - and some against the baker because - now listen - "He was refusing service to 'citizens of the state of Colorado.'"

When all this was going on, I told Teresa, this will be a no-brainer. He'll lose in their court system - because - he's a Colorado corporation - and as such - he has to obey the laws of his creator. And, in the state courts - he did lose. Then, he appealed to higher courts. I asked Teresa if she knew the outcome and she said she thought he lost in their "supreme court." Neither of us could remember - because as we all are so aware of - they've moved on to their next crisis and billions and trillions of people dying from something that doesn't even exist has been at the forefront of everything for the past almost 2 years now.

So, I looked it up. And guess what? The u.s. "supreme court" ended up siding with the Colorado baker. He didn't have to suffer penalties for refusing to make the cake for the queers. Wow. Hallelujah, isn't that great? Remember now, nothing good comes from those people - and remember what one of their "presidents" said. "In politics -

NOTHING happens by chance.” These people either know exactly what they are doing and are acting upon a script of some kind - or - their insanity just continues on a path that yields one major blunder after another.

While the “church” world was no doubt celebrating their tremendous victory in their “supreme court” probably because of the all the great “Churchian judges” that Godly Trump appointed - I got to thinking about this supposed “victory” in light of the bigger picture - and brethren - this is not good at all. Their “supreme court” decided that corporations COULD in fact - “discriminate” and refuse service to “citizens.”

Alright now, so bring this down to today. Maniac Biden - directly according to the plan - it was not hard to see this coming - is moving earth - to force their diabolically devilish jab on everyone. Somehow he thinks he can force all businesses in the u.s. that have more than 100 “employees” to mandate Donald Trump's gene altering “vaccine.”

When, this “goes to court” - well - it's already been decided - u.s. corporations have the “right” to refuse service - and they will have the “right” to refuse employment to anyone who has not taken the jab. That's what the whole Colorado baker queer debate was all about. Now, the “u.s. supreme court” has already decided it is okay to refuse service to people they don't agree with.

This Colorado baker scenario was largely a setup. They drew the naive church people into it making it look like the church people were getting a victory given to them by their “supreme court” when in reality this was just a part in a greater scheme of evil. They were establishing that “businesses” - u.s. corporations - creatures of the state - could in fact discriminate against people - and what this means for today is businesses will be able to deny services and goods to people if they have not taken the mrna gene altering Trump drugs.

It's okay to look at their politics. I'm not saying we should put our heads in a hole in the ground and not pay attention to what the maniacs are doing. We aren't in Ecclesia - we don't have our own nation like God so clearly told us to have - and what they do - absolutely affects us right now - so we should pay attention. But do not expect them to do anything that improves our condition. Men's little g governments are in place to prevent the Kingdom of God from coming into view. They are there to continue to promote their wicked agenda of enslavement and making sure people do not even see that they have a choice to choose a completely different Government. The Kingdom of God where Christ is the King - Yahweh is the Lawmaker. They are not there to help. They are there to hinder. Period.

These people are all liars. Those outside the city of God love to lie and they love to make lies. I read an article just this morning that just 1 month ago - Biden told his u.s. citizens - "It is not the role of the federal government to mandate vaccines." Then one week after that, Rochelle Walensky of the cdc said, "There will be no nationwide mandate." Then, not even a month and a half later - Biden gets up there and demands mandates for the rest of the supposed "unvaxxed" people in the u.s. These people are total maniacal, lying - I don't know - are they even real people? Are their consciences so seared they aren't even real people any longer? This is just crazy.

They turn evil into good and good into evil - that's what they do. So, don't fall for it. Don't fall for anything they do in thinking that we will benefit in any way. I tried to tell people that believe similar to what we do - I tried to tell them to stop following Trump. God's people are not supposed to follow these people. Biden said he doesn't understand why Trump supporters will not take the Trump drug!

Keep your eyes squarely focused on the Biblical goal. That is Ecclesia. That is the nation called the Commonwealth of Israel. That is where our citizenship is supposed to be. We are not to be citizens of the world - friends - it can't be clearer - whosoever is a friend of the world is the enemy of God. If friendship with the world - friendship - if friendship with the world is enmity with God - what do you think full blown citizenship is? Friends don't typically have agreements between each other with oaths and affirmations and paperwork and taxes and licenses and all sorts of official looking papers. If friendship with the world is enmity with God - what do we think all this other stuff is?

We have fooled ourselves for way too long. We have a major problem and we better take steps to correct it. This is not God's fault. This is our fault. We have chosen "kings like all the other nations." We have done exactly the same thing the Israelites did in I Samuel chapter 8 - and somehow - even though the things were plainly written for us to see what NOT TO DO - we went and did the exact same thing. Friends, if you think about it - that is totally mind blowing. We are doing exactly what God said not to do.

Now remember again, the Israelites did not know - they were told exactly what would happen - but ultimately - it had already been decided for them - it was done to show us. It was written to show us. Thousands of years later. Friends we have to come to this understanding that those people did not have a choice - what went on - what was recorded in the Bible - except for a tiny little bit which we'll eventually get to - just a glimpse of whosoever will is all we get - but the things that were recorded in the Bible were in the lives of people who had no choice - the Book shows us the good things that happen when the proper choices are made - and it shows us the bad things that happen when the wrong choices are made. And it was all written for us. Written for our learning. For our admonition - pleas to us - to not make the wrong choices.

Before we get to Michael's Minutes - which I hope all of you read this week - I want us to go to Isaiah chapter 30. Again - this was written - not for the Israelites thousands of years ago - I'm going to prove this to you again in just a minute - they didn't have a choice - but it was written for us - for every single generation from the end of the last one - which was actually the beginning of the first one - and for every subsequent generation - and for every generation that will continue forever - world without end. Age without end. The age of the Ecclesia will never end - that's what the Book says. So, please turn with me this morning to Isaiah chapter 30.

During a time in which the people did not have any choices - they thought they did - that's what makes this so interesting - they thought they had choices - but ultimately they did not - it was written so that we would learn. We could learn at what God wanted the people to do - then we would see their mistakes - and hopefully - in the New Covenant World - we would not make the same mistakes they did.

In this New World - I simply do not believe that God is still moving things like puppets on strings. He wants His Creation to obey Him out of their own free choice - Whosoever Will may come, Whosoever Will may drink from the river of life.

Isaiah 30 shows us exactly what the Will of God is. It shows exactly what happens when men are in control, and it shows exactly what happens when men step aside and let God be in control, by their obedience, verse 1, and this will probably be it for today's message:

[1] Woe to the rebellious children, saith Yahweh, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

[2] That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

Oh my. Friends, the u.s. has been modern day Egypt since its inception. And it is getting more and more like Egypt and like Sodom and Gomorrah, and like Rome more and more and more. And we are right in the middle of Isaiah 30 verse 2. The principles shown right there. Whose "laws" do we follow? Who are the ones who determine good and evil? Egypt is the prototypical example of men's little g governments. God's people were stuck there for a while - just like our generation - and the generation before us - and the generation before that one. How long were the children of Israel in Egypt? Over 400 years. In their day - they didn't have a choice but to stay there until Yahweh appointed Moses to come on the scene and lead them out. Our example is that we can come out - every generation that finds itself in a situation like the children of Israel in Egypt - every generation can come out - just get up and leave - because our Moses has already come. Every generation since Christ has had their Moses come. After Christ - there will never be another Moses. He was the final Moses.

The Saviour came. The Shepherd came. The flock left Egypt. We do not need to sit around here and wait for another Moses - there will never be another Moses. Christ came - and He's not coming again. We can leave Egypt whenever we choose to leave Egypt. It's our choice. Whosoever Will may come. Look what the u.s. has done. The u.s. has become saviour, protector, provider, and now the one who commands your health - the u.s. has become the shadow of Egypt. Stop drinking the poisoned water of Egypt and drink from the living water of Christ. That is available now. To every single generation since Christ came in the first one. Verse 3.

[3] Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

This is exactly where we are today. I've never seen it revealed as strongly now as I have in the past 2 years. Yeah, of course, because of my perspective, because I've never been a part of their world - I've seen their craziness for my entire adult life - but it's crazy on steroids right now. These people have completely lost their minds. From the top to the bottom - they are all total nutjobs.

I admit it. I like to watch the game of football. Stay with me for a second - stay with me for a second - don't throw me away because I like to watch a stupid game. I couldn't care less about a single player in their game. I just like to watch the game. But are you aware that these idiots - yes - from the top to the bottom - idiots - not a single one of them have died from Covid - same for the NBA - same for the PGA - same for the NHL - Major League baseball - not a single one of them have died from Covid. But they have forced these guys into living the craziest lives imaginable. And, think about it, these guys were easy pickings to force them into the craziest things. They get paid millions of dollars a year to play stupid games. A lot of them would be working at McDonald's if they didn't get to play a game. So, yeah, they are going to submit to whatever the maniacs want them to submit to - so they can keep playing their games for a few more years and make millions in doing so.

But in the NFL, in football, when these players arrive at their practice facilities - they are required to attach some type of tracking device to their bodies so they can detect whether or not they've come in "close contact" with someone who has tested positive for the dreaded, deadly, killing billions of people, Covid-19. This is all a test. They are testing all this out on these NFL players so that they can one day expand this out to the rest of their society. Unbelievable. And no doubt, they have threatened these guys with fines or worse - if they complain about it. Well, they say the NFL season is going to be dramatically altered this season because now they have rules for the vaxxers and rules for the petulant non-vaxxers. They will, I guarantee it, I'm not acting like a prophet here - they're just transparent - be making examples out of the petulant non-vaxxers and some very high profile - game changing players - are going to be forced out of big games - and it will be blamed on them not bowing to the jab. You wait and see.

Now rest assured, whoever they want to miss a game because of a "close contact" they can very easily manipulate it. If they don't do this for their covid propaganda - the gamblers will manipulate that system for their own financial gain. It's a joke. It's a big fat joke. They will probably pull someone from a game right before game time - or they may even pull someone from a game during the middle of the game. You wait and see. They have completely lost their minds. I'm not sure exactly why I went off on that for a minute. We were talking about not trusting in the shadow of Egypt.

I was going to wait a few minutes before talking about Michael's Minutes - but I think this is a perfect time. Because Michael's Minute filled in some holes for me also. One of the biggest holes it filled in with me is I couldn't really figure out how they were able to manipulate so many doctors and nurses into buying into this total nonsense of people supposedly dying from the flu. And Michael's Minutes filled this hole in for me.

Just a couple days after Michael sent in his Minute, Sam sent me a link to a "doctor" who was bringing out the evidence that the drug called Remdesivir - which is the drug that Fauci says doctors should be prescribing for treatment of Covid - is what is actually killing people who come in to the hospital. This is exactly what Michael was saying. Going all the way back to the AIDS plandemic - it was when these people went to the hospitals and took their drugs - that's what was killing them. It wasn't the supposed virus - it was the drugs that killed them. We need to understand that Fauci is not just some talking head. He's the director of the National Institutes of Health. The doctors and the hospitals depend on Fauci to tell them how to treat illnesses sicknesses.

This Remdesivir was a drug they were prescribing in the Ebola plandemic in 2018 - and they actually pulled it out of use - because someone figured out that the drug itself was what was killing the people. It wasn't the supposed virus - it was the drugs that killed them - the "treatment."

So, in the Covid plandemic - people come to the hospital with the flu because someone told them "You've got covid, you better get to the hospital" - but the hospitals have already been told about this dread disease - and when these people come in with the flu - you put them on ventilators and prescribe Remdesivir. And look what happens. People die. But they aren't dying from a virus - they are dying from the supposed treatment. The unsuspecting doctors and the nurses are actually killing people they think they are helping. And all they are doing is what the National Institute of Health has told them they are supposed to do.

Now, think about this. First off, I don't think every single doctor and every single nurse in the AMA is diabolical. They aren't waking up in the morning with pure evil on their minds. They are doing what they are told is the right thing to do - except their orders are coming from people who ARE pure evil. But some of them - yes - are pure evil themselves and don't need someone like Fauci to guide their hands. Listen to this. Just a few days ago:

An abortion clinic in Texas reportedly rushed to beat the clock on the state's new restrictions, performing 67 abortions with one doctor over the course of 17 hours.

Let me read that to you again.

An abortion clinic in Texas reportedly rushed to beat the clock on the state's new restrictions, performing 67 abortions with one doctor over the course of 17 hours.

Do you think there are some doctors and nurses out there that ARE pure evil? You better believe it.

Texas' law took effect the following day, Sept. 1, effectively imposing a six-week limit on abortions.

According to "The 19th," Whole Woman's Health Ft. Worth only had "eight people total between the techs and the front office staff, the doctor and three staff members from a nearby clinic they brought in to help."

And they murdered 67 babies in 17 hours. You think there aren't doctors and nurses out there who are not pure evil?

<https://www.foxnews.com/politics/texas-clinic-67-abortions-17-hours>

Now, do you think there are not some doctors and nurses out there that are pure evil? You better believe it. We don't know what these people believe. We don't know if some of these people subscribe to the Georgia Guidestones or not. We don't know if these people believe that the insane concept of over-population is real and they need to do their part in reducing it. We better be real careful when we go to these people for "help." If you break your arm, ok, go get it fixed. But for other things - you better be careful. You better exhaust every known resource you have for alternatives other than hospitals before you go to them for something.

And this brings me to something else we need to think about. This Texas "abortion law." Oh it's so great. Look at what Texas did to protect the babies. Oh that governor must be a Christian. Well, that Texas "law" set up a reporting website that gives $10,000 to any "citizen" that reports someone for violating that Texas "law." Oh, you think that's a good thing? That "law" also made it to the u.s. "supreme court" and wouldn't you know it - the u.s. "supreme court" sided with the pro-lifers. How great, thank the Lord. Christians are on the "supreme court." Really? All they did was say that states can set up systems whereby people can get paid for turning in people who have not taken the job. Or people who did not "vote." Or people who refuse to participate in other little government scams. Or what have you. Nothing good comes from these people - do not be fooled. Do not trust in the shadow of Egypt. They love to make lies. They are all liars. They love to make lies. They are double-minded - they are not of God. Don't be fooled. Keep your eyes only on Christ. Keep your hearts and minds turned only to the Great Shepherd and do not be led astray by listening to the voices of the wolves in sheep's clothing. This is who they are. All of them. Every single one of them. And there's not a speck of difference between any of them.

Alright - if you have not read Michael's latest Minute - you really need to do that as soon as you can. It is excellent - not to fail to mention that it is valuable information that has come from one of our own. It didn't come from the Godless. It came from one of our own - someone who believes in the present day reality of King and Kingdom - right now. Go read it. It is excellent. Back to Isaiah 30, verse 4.

[4] For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

[5] They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

[6] The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

[7] For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

The Egyptians will not help us. The u.s. will not help us. These things were written exactly to us - in our generation - for this present moment - for this exact moment in time - Isaiah 30 was written for us - to show us the way we are supposed to live.

[8] Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

Did you see that? Did you see what Isaiah 30 verse 8 just said? Wow. That just made every single hair on my body stand straight up. What was written - what God told Isaiah to write - was written for the time to come - that's the New Covenant World - the New Covenant Age - without end - for ever and ever. That is not one of the forevers - that ended with the Old World - that is specifically referring to the New World - the world that lasts for ever and ever. We are to learn from these things. This is the mind of God. This is the Will of God. This is what we are supposed to be doing.

[9] That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of Yahweh:

Has this been our generation? Even for most of us who are just now beginning to see the egregious errors of our ways. For our total existence, we've just accepted the "laws of men" the "law of the land" - we've accepted men's laws in our lives - and we've actually become children who will not hear the Law of Yahweh. We need to face this. We obey men's laws - and we do not obey Yahweh's. This is because we have become naturalized citizens of Egypt.

Now listen to me - this is going to be painful - but I have to say it. "But we are obeying God's Laws - we keep the feasts, we keep the sabbaths, we keep the baptisms, we keep the ceremonial Law of God." This is not what is meant by hearing and keeping the Law of Yahweh. Egypt doesn't care about whether or not someone keeps the ceremonial Laws of God. The u.s. doesn't care one bit about whether or not someone keeps an Old Covenant feast. No one gets persecuted in the u.s. for keeping a feast. This is not what this is talking about. The first commandment - "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Gods means rulers, judges, magistrates.

In our generation - we - we who call ourselves Christians - we have obliterated the first commandment. We think we are keeping the Laws of God because we think we are keeping sabbaths, we're keeping feasts, we're keeping baptisms - all the while we have documents in our pockets, flags on our vehicles, saying that we are trusting in the shadow of Egypt. We are looking at the u.s. for protection, for provision, for health - this is not what Isaiah is talking about. Who do we pay taxes to in the u.s.? "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Again, brethren, I'm not trying to beat us down. I'm not trying to destroy our spirit - what little spirit that we have - I'm just trying to keep it in our minds that the whole Book - it's all about being citizens of the Commonwealth of Israel - exclusive citizens - not dual citizenship - not Egyptian and Christ - not the u.s. and Christ - exclusive citizens of the Kingdom of God. God is a jealous God

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Yahweh thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

This isn't sticking your fist in the face of God and say, "I hate you." Hate is not obeying Him.

For thou shalt worship no other god: for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:

For Yahweh thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

Deut.5

[9] Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the Yahweh thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

Deut.6

[15] (For Yahweh thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

Deut.32

[16] They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

[21] They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

Josh.24

[19] And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve Yahweh: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

1Kgs.19

[10] And he said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

[14] And he said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

Repeated 2 times in less than 4 verses to emphasize the importance.

Ezek.8

[3] And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

Ezek.36

[5] Therefore thus saith the Lord Yahweh; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

[6] Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord Yahweh; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

We were never supposed to be citizens of Egypt. We were never supposed to be citizens of the u.s. We are supposed to be citizens of the Commonwealth of Israel. The Book has been very clear about that. But sadly, we listened to the wrong voices. We listened to “preachers” extensions of men's little g governments. We actually fell for the deception that the Great Shepherd wanted us to listen to strange voices. That was never the case. We were never supposed to listen to any voice besides the voice of our Shepherd. But we did. Now we're in a really bad place. Our only CHOICE - yes - CHOICE - is to get ourselves up out of Egypt - and become the Nation we are supposed to be.
Verse 10.

[10] Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits:

“Oh my goodness. Charlie, stop telling us hard things. Stop telling us what we are supposed to hear. Quit telling us the right things - just preach what's easy. Preach what's smooth. Don't rock the boat.” No, I will not preach lies like the rest of them do.
I'm going to preach the truth until the day my voice ceases to preach. Come out of Egypt. Come out of the u.s. Come out of Canada. Come out of the Philippines. Come out of Italy and come into the Kingdom of God. Join yourselves with other believers and begin to allow Yahweh to once again build His Ecclesia. And do it with all confidence - with all trust in our faith - our system of belief that was once delivered to the saints - that He will build His Ecclesia - and the gates of hell will not prevail against it. Verse 11.

[11] Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

[12] Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this Word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

[13] Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

Listen to me now - remember verse 8. These things were written for us.

[8] Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

This was written for people who had a choice in the matter. We can choose Christ. We can choose the Government of the Commonwealth of Israel. I'm telling you - get those documents that identify you as a citizen of the world - get them out of your billfolds - get them out of your purses. We've got to stop being rebellious children. We've got to stop living this lie and we've got to start being the people of God. We are to be exclusive citizens of the Commonwealth of Israel. The Book is about God's people - Israel. Verse 14.

[14] And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

[15] For thus saith the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

We have a choice. Those people that this was written to did not have a choice. But we do. We can choose to return. We can choose to return to the rest that's in Christ and be saved. We have that choice. We can choose to live in the quietness and confidence and get strength from our King and His Kingdom. Let's not let it be said about our generation - "and ye would not." It doesn't have to be that way. We have a choice.

[16] But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

[17] One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

[18] And therefore will Yahweh wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will He be exalted, that He may have mercy upon you: for Yahweh is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

There you go again. He is sitting there waiting for His people to voluntarily return to Him. When we return to Him - He will be there waiting to have mercy upon us. This was all written for us. This is what will happen when we do what we are supposed to do. Do we believe this? Is He a God of His Word? I believe He is.

[19] For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when He shall hear it, He will answer thee.

For us - in the New Covenant World - what Jerusalem is this talking about? It is the New Jerusalem, the heavenly Jerusalem, the New Covenant. That's all it can be talking about. The Jerusalem of the Old Covenant was destroyed - along with the temple - not one stone left standing upon another. Verse 20:

[20] And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

[21] And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

[22] Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

For us - in our generation - this is talking about casting aside the ways of the world. Citizenship with the world. The "laws" of the world. Say to it - "Get thee hence."

Well, where else do we see "Get thee hence?" When Christ was offered the kingdoms of the world - when He was offered the kingdoms of the world - by - and I still think a really strong argument could be made that the devil - the satan - with which Christ having this conversation in Luke 4 - was quite possibly Caesar himself - and Christ said to Him - "Get thee behind me, Satan."

Just like all the maniacs running the little g kingdoms in the world today - it's time for us to say to them - "Get thee hence, get behind me satan."

Biden trying to mandate Trump's dna altering - gene therapy injection - "Get thee behind me, Satan." For all those demanding we turn from the way God wants us to live - we haven't gotten there yet - and they are doing everything they can to make sure we do not find the way - and walk there in it. "Get thee hence." Get thee behind me, Satan.

God told Isaiah to write that this way - this way to walk in - was written for a later time - and then for generations for ever and ever. For anyone or anything that tries to move God's people from living the way He said to live - "Get thee hence."

This is faith. This is the system of belief once delivered to the saints - because this is exactly how the saints lived in the first century. This is the way. When they were told:

[23] Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

[24] The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

[25] And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

[26] Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

[27] Behold, the name of Yahweh cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

[28] And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

In our time - that's not Yahweh causing them to err - that is the cause of the error. It's because the people have not followed the way. The people in our world have a choice. We have a choice in the way we will walk.

This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

If the people do not heed the Words and walk in the way - their own rebellion is the cause of their error.

[29] Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of Yahweh, to the mighty One of Israel.

[30] And Yahweh shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

[31] For through the voice of Yahweh shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

[32] And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which Yahweh shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

[33] For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of Yahweh, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

Promises for those who obey and heed the Words of the Lord and walk in the way. And likewise, curses for those who do not. The IFs and THENs of the Bible are absolutely valid for today.

While these people did not have a choice - the IFs and THENs were still taught to them. But why?

[8] Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

We are in that time to come. The Words were recorded by men who wrote what God wanted to be written. But as I have shown over and over and over - though those men did not know that their very steps, their very breaths were all predestined before the foundation of the world - while they did not know what would become of them - the things written by them and about them - were written so that we - in the time to come - could look back and say, "That was the way. Turn not to the right or to the left. Walk in the way that Yahweh said to walk."

It shouldn't be that difficult. But we live in a generation who chose - yes chose - to walk after other gods. I've told you many times before - and I'm certainly nothing special - I'm no different than anyone else hearing these words today. But when I was 18 or 19 years old - and for the first time I read the u.s. CONstitution - and I read the words - "This CONstitution and the laws and treaties and statues made in pursuance thereof - SHALL BE THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND." When I read that as a kid - it shocked me to my core. It shocked me so much that I realized that day I could never follow that document - and I could never follow the "laws, statues, treaties, etc., made in pursuance thereof."

I was stuck right in the middle of a bunch of church men. All of which I shared my horrors with. Most of them much older than me. And not a single one of them were moved by the horrors that struck me that day. I didn't understand then - and I understand it even less today.

I simply do not understand how men and women, boys and girls - who claim to be followers of Christ - cannot find the absolute rebellion in that statement and not run as fast and as far away from that as they possibly can.

“Shall be the supreme law of the land.” My goodness. Are you kidding me? I don't care if the document quotes John 3:16 in it - which it certainly does not - but to have that statement as the capstone to that document - just blows my mind that preachers - so-called or otherwise - cannot - will not - see that statement as a stick your fist in the face of God and state - “We will not have this man to reign over us.”

Amazing. Well, there's an answer. It's a very simplistic answer but I believe it is true. I believe these things are a result of failing to understand what it means to be fully immersed into Christ. A man that is fully immersed into Christ - follows His voice and His voice alone. Christ said He came not to destroy His Father's Laws - but to fulfill them. Christ was not interested in keeping man's “laws.” Every step of the way - whether He was dealing with the traditions of the jews - or whether He was asked about obeying Caesar - His answers were ALWAYS telling men and women, boys and girls - they were to follow the voice of the Shepherd - exclusive of all others.
