

The commonwealth of Israel, My Sheep Hear My Voice

Preached first on 4/05/2020 on www.molibertyradio.us

Well hello again friends and family. Before we get started this morning, I want to remind you again of Michael's Minutes on the website. They are fantastic reading! Also, comments have been pouring in concerning the messages and several of them have been added to the Comments page. I would encourage you to spend some time reading the insights from others who are listening to the messages. It's so very exciting and encouraging to see the comments we are getting from the messages.

I am encouraged that the numbers of listeners is growing. I am encouraged that I continue to hear from people who have been listening and they tell me they are telling others about our ministry via their Facebook pages and other social media. I think that's great. It is a blessing and a great encouragement when I receive emails like that. We have to keep talking, keep sharing, keep pointing people to the King and the Kingdom.

I am coming to you this morning as one of the sheep - still physically - though definitely not mentally and spiritually - in the sheepfold of what is called the U.S. - but as one of the sheep who has desperately wanted to get completely out of the sheepfold so that he can follow the King into the King's pasture. I've heard about the King. I love the King. I want to obey the voice of the King - but it's rather challenging trying to obey His voice when I have guns at my head trying to force me to obey strange voices. Those strange voices have been saying really weird things for a long long time - but now - in this supposed "time of crisis" - which - for the record - I absolutely believe is a fake - manufactured "crisis" - they have completely lost it.

The voices of the strangers are totally revealing themselves as the despots, the thieves, the robbers some of us have said they were for a long long time - and many of the other sheep still in the sheepfold are proving that they have been hoodwinked by the despots, the thieves, the robbers - and of course - most of all - the wolves in sheep's clothing.

Teresa sent me a photo this week of something from inside a Walmart store. Walmart has banned itself from selling anything deemed quote "non-essential." The photo she sent was a sign saying they couldn't sell the non-essentials. And the sign was taped over the section of vegetable seeds. Vegetable seeds are non-essentials? I would remind you again of the passage we have looked at many times from Deuteronomy 28 that when people refuse to obey the Laws of God, He smites them with insanity. They are now saying that the food supply in the U.S. is in jeopardy - yet vegetable seeds are deemed non-essential - right here in the spring. What kind of an idiot, moron, has decided that vegetable seeds in the spring are non-essential? Good grief. Idiots.

The thing they call the quote "state of Missouri" has graciously waived fishing permit requirements for their cattle since the "manufactured crisis" began. This is interesting to me because if you quote "waive" certain quote "laws" during a quote "crisis" then aren't you really saying the quote "laws" were not valuable to begin with? Seems to me that's the case. Kind of like their CONstitution - which I always spell with a capital CON. The despots, thieves, robbers and wolves in sheep's clothing have obliterated their CON during this "manufactured crisis." Their CON had something in it called the quote "right to peaceably assemble." Ha. What a joke? Here, all this time, those people thought they had the quote "right to peaceably assemble" - but over night that supposed "right" has been abolished. Of course, there's not one person in a million who actually knows what all entails in the quote "right to peaceably assemble" - it's original intent - which is borderline Scriptural - though it was legislated away very quickly - the original intent of peaceably assemble is the quote "right" - according to them - according to Yahweh it is a command - but the quote "right to peaceably assemble" means the quote "right to have your own government." It goes way beyond just getting together for pizza, or to form the United Autoworkers Union. But overnight, that great "right" guaranteed by the CON - was obliterated by the tiniest little mayor in the tiniest little cities all over the U.S.

Back to the quote "state of Missouri" waiving the supposed permitting requirements on fishing. Well, great. Never should have been there in the first place. But in the Walmart in Springfield, Missouri, in the fishing supplies section of the store - they have signs saying those products cannot be sold, because they are considered non-essential. Idiots. Total idiots. Absolutely amazing.

Their CON needs a rewrite. It needs to be rewritten. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble," unless, unless, unless.

Well, Charlie, they would have never anticipated anything like the coronavirus. Of course, not, men have not had to deal with any kind of illness, sickness, plague or anything like that until the winter and spring of 2020.

It's like Ted always says concerning their quote "second amendment." The one that isn't supposed to be infringed upon, has been the one that has been most infringed upon. So the CON has proven that it isn't worth the paper it's written on.

William Barr, REPUBLICAN - r-e-p-u-b-l-i-c-a-n - not democrat - republican - if he had it his way - he would have suspended habeas corpus. Amazing. Simply amazing. I hope we are learning from this. There are those out there listening - and by the way - I am so happy to report to you that the number of downloads of these messages for the month of March - were over 900 - but there are those out there who are on the fence. I hope you are seeing that the CON - when certain elements could possibly do some good - are once again - proven to be worthless words on a paper document. What good is it if it can be tossed out like the afternoon trash?

We need Law that is eternally relevant. It works - all the time - in the good times - in the bad times - it works every single time. That's because it was written by Yahweh Himself - the Creator, the Sustainer, the Giver of Life.

There was a very brief period of time in my life - about 6 months - where I got caught in the CON. I was listening to some strange voices. If I named them, many of you would know them. But they were talking about returning to the CON and how that would turn America around and so forth. And the CON was based on the Bible, and so forth. And for a brief period of time, I listened to those voices. One day the result of listening to the voices caused me to have my first encounter with the guys with guns. I got roughed up a little bit. Nothing major, but it was impactful.

At that moment, the thought entered my mind, that if I was going to live a life that could potentially get me beat up, or roughed up, or jailed or worse - that if that would be my lot in life - it had to be for something greater than a manmade document. Not long after that, I was given the opportunity to make my choice. I chose - to the best of my understanding at that time - I chose to exclusively follow the voice of the King.

Listen to me friends, the U.S. CON is not worth stripes or imprisonment. It is not worth losing your precious sons and I can't believe I'd even have to add - your daughters. The only thing worth stripes, imprisonment or worse - is following the King of kings and Lord of lords. And, I'll assure you - He is not leading with another Lawbook. He is not leading His sheep with an inferior, manmade set of laws that in more ways than not - opposes the Laws of His Father.

Oh how I wish that when the door was opened and the true Shepherd/King was standing there - oh how I wish I would have understood John 10 the way I do today. The ecclesia - the Kingdom of God - is outside of the sheepfold. Inside the sheepfold - it's filled with people who want to stay in the sheepfold - which is shepherded by despots, thieves, robbers and of course - wolves in sheep's clothing.

Friends, family - please hear me this morning. The numbers do not add up. I have been telling you this for weeks - and I am standing by it stronger than ever. The numbers do not add up. There are not people dropping dead all over the place. At least not in greater numbers than there always has been.

For many years - almost 30 now - whenever I've had conversations with someone regarding the problems we face as those who want to serve and follow the King - there has never been a time where I did not respond by saying, "We are supposed to be living in ecclesia." We are supposed to be living in called-out Christian communities of believers - exactly the way Christ told us to. The ecclesia, the Kingdom of God, the nation of God, the commonwealth of Israel - and exclusive citizenship in it - is the answer. "I will build my ecclesia - and the gates of hell will not prevail against it."

The ecclesia of Christ is not in the sheepfold of the world. The ecclesia of Christ is not run by the despots, thieves, robbers, wolves in sheep's clothing. The ecclesia of Christ is outside of that sheepfold.

I believe that once again, the Shepherd/King may be standing at the door of the world's sheepfold calling His sheep out. We may get that opportunity to walk through the door. Friends, if we get the opportunity this time - we better take it.

Do I have the answers for the "nuts and bolts" of it? I do not. But I believe that - as the Scriptures say - when we act on the faith we have - He will build on that faith. He will begin to fill in the blanks. He will begin to give us more understanding and more knowledge on how to follow Him in a world that hates Him, hates His Father and hates His Laws.

I was talking to Jeff this week and I told that I was a little surprised that after last week's message, I did not hear from someone simply asking me to refute the "churchianity" teaching that we are supposed to be quote "in the world, but not of it." There is a certain amount of Biblical truth in that, but certainly not the way it is taught in the quote "church." The quote "church" has taken that principle and twisted it into meanings it was never intended for. The quote "church" has taken that as Christ telling His sheep that it is perfectly fine for them to look like the world, act the world, talk like the world, walk like the world - as long as the ultimate goal is to quote "win them to Jesus."

In order to arrive at that conclusion, just like they have to do with dealing with Bible Prophecy, they have to ignore about 99% of the rest of the principles taught in the Scripture. Turn with me please, this morning, John 17. And as is pretty much all the time, let's begin in verse 1.

I hope that as we read this, this morning, John 10 is still burned into your minds. The Shepherd/King in John 10 is the One to Whom the porter opened the door - it was not the sheep. It was the Good Shepherd, the True Shepherd that went through the door and He called His sheep OUT of the sheepfold. The sheep that were inside the sheepfold were being led by thieves and robbers - false shepherds who had claimed over the fence of who had come in another way. Jesus, Yeshua, the Good Shepherd was the One Who came through the door for the purpose of calling His sheep out. "Come, assemble, and I will help you to escape the nations." And His sheep heard His voice and they followed Him.

Now, John 17, verse 1.

[1] These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee:

[2] As Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him.

[3] And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the Only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent.

[4] I have glorified Thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest Me to do.

[5] And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine Own Self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was.

[6] I have manifested Thy name unto the men which Thou gavest me out of the world: Thine they were, and Thou gavest them me; and they have kept Thy word.

[7] Now they have known that all things whatsoever Thou hast given me are of Thee.

[8] For I have given unto them the words which Thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from Thee, and they have believed that Thou didst send me.

Now watch this closely. And I guess I should make some comments regarding these people that God had given to His Son. Go back up to verses 2 and 3.

As Thou hast given Him power over all flesh,

I need for you to really think about this, this morning. Yahweh has given His Son power over all flesh. I want you to understand the awesomeness of what is being said here. This is the Lordship of Christ over all God's Creation. This is neither is there any other name - authority - under heaven. This is all power and all authority. And these that Yahweh had given His Son - understood this. This is why ultimately, they would not bow to any man. They would not bow to any quote "law" that was not His Father's Laws, Commandments, Judgements. This is why they refuse to be called by any other name. This is why their citizenship was exclusively in the commonwealth of Israel. They understood that this Jesus, this Yeshua was King of kings and Lord of lords and He had been sent to bring down all authority, all power, all principalities, all might and anything that would not bow the knee to His Father and His Father's Laws. This includes all quote "governments" all quote "earthly kings" all quote "presidents, senators, representatives, governors little g, all mayors, aldermen" every one of them was to come down from those positions and bow their knees to the King of kings and Lord of lords. They were all to immediately veto and void out their laws, statues and judgements and replace them with the Laws, Commandments, Statutes, Judgements and Perfect Will of His Father, Yahweh God, the Creator of the World and all that's in it.

And friends, this is our example. This was written for our learning. We are supposed to follow the Shepherd/King according to the example from these verses. Do we really understand the Lordship of Christ over - not just His people - but over the entirety of Creation?

Listen, right now, we see it, the world is not being run according to the Lordship of Christ. We see all that's going on right now - and I see and hear comments from people all the time - "Well, we still know that He's in control." Really? He's in control of what?

He's in control when His people are living according to His Ways. Today, the world is in control, and the world, run by despots, thieves, robbers, liars, wolves in sheep's clothing - is leading the world straight to ruin. That's what's really going on.

I saw an article the other day with the most brutal headline I think I've ever seen in my life. It said, "Christians have no answer for the Coronavirus." Well, a far more accurate headline would have been "Churchians have no answer for the Coronavirus." But the world thinks the "church" and Christ are the one and the same. They are not. And one of the reasons for this is that the True Sheep have been too meek. We've been too quiet. We've not been vocal enough that the quote "church" is not only NOT of God - but it is the enemy of God.

It doesn't matter that there are some genuinely sincere seeking people in those buildings. It doesn't matter that there are even some genuinely sincere seeking quote "preachers" in those buildings - they are sincerely wrong in teaching that "church" is Biblical and they are a far greater problem than they are a solution. By playing "church" and trying to force that organization into something extra-Biblical - they are perpetuating "strange fire." And while "strange fire" warms, no doubt about that, it will ultimately bring death.

True Christians need to expose, reprove and correct every single time they hear the word "church" come out of someone's mouth when it is spoken in an unbiblical manner. The ecclesia and the "church" are not only NOT the same - but the "church" is the enemy of the ecclesia. It was set up to be such from the very beginning. Jesus, Yeshua did not build "church." He built His Kingdom.

I have seen two quote "churches" in the news who have refused to close their doors because the state commanded them to. One of those quote "preachers" has made it very clear why he refused to close his doors - and it was because he claimed a "first amendment right." Not good enough. Especially since they've already proven that their quote "first amendment" can be arbitrarily overridden by even the most small, insignificant quote "mayor" in all the land.

God's people assemble, God's people do His Work, God's people do His Will - because He is Lord, He is King, He is Lawgiver. Anything or anyone else, is a strange voice. Until we understand the Lordship of Christ and what that really means, we will be tempted to be led astray by strange voices.

As Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him.

[3] And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the Only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent.

This is the True Shepherd and these are the true sheep. His sheep understand Who He is. Now let's look closer at verses 4 through 8.

[4] I have glorified Thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest Me to do.

"Woah, now Jesus. Let's not get hasty, here. You've got unfinished work left. You have to come back here and rapture us away from all this mess that's going on here today. Now I realize that you said your work was finished in the first century, but there's still the book of Revelation that's undone, the antichrist, the beasts, all that, you've still got work to do." No. His work was done in the first century, just like He said. Verse 5.

[5] And now, O Father, glorify Thou Me with Thine Own Self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was.

[6] I have manifested Thy name unto the men which Thou gavest me out of the world:

We are at this point in time of our faith, our system of belief based on the truths of the Word - that I hope you have allowed this to burn in to the point where everytime you see it and read it in the Word - you immediately understand the word "name" as "authority." "I have manifested, I have revealed, it means to render apparent, manifestly declare, I have manifestly declared that everything ever written in the first 39 books of the Bible, everything that was planned before the foundation, the Creation of the world, You and You alone are the One Who is Supreme in Authority and by and through Your Name only - may men move and live and have their being.

Thine they were, and Thou gavest them me; and they have kept Thy word.

[7] Now they have known that all things whatsoever Thou hast given me are of Thee.

[8] For I have given unto them the words which Thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from Thee, and they have believed that Thou didst send me.

Oh my goodness, friends, can you imagine for one second these men following the voice of someone else? Can you imagine these men living with citizenships of nations other than the commonwealth of Israel? Can you imagine these men living with any other King, any other Shepherd? No. We cannot. Or no, we should not. These men answered only the voice of the Good Shepherd. They did not bow to or serve other gods.

I don't want to shake this reality from us right now, but to do full justice to the Word, I have to point out that only a few days after Christ had spoken these Words, every single one of His disciples forsook Him. But, that had to happen so that prophecy could be fulfilled. However, and this is one of the most significant things that needs to be understood about this whole testimony - once their Shepherd/King was murdered, executed by the state, after His resurrection and ascension to the throne of David - these Words of Christ were fully realized in the lives of those men.

It was not the many miracles that those men witnessed that caused them never to forsake their Shepherd. It was not seeing Jesus raise Lazarus from the dead that caused them to never forsake their King. Peter denied His King three times in a very short period of time. But once those men saw their King crucified, buried and risen from the dead - the full impact and understanding of the things they had seen and heard overwhelmed them to the point of their own full repentance and acknowledgement that this truly, was the Son of God.

I believe it's safe to say that even after everything that was said about them, they had an "excuse" if you will - for temporarily falling away. It was prophesied. It was beyond their control. But once the resurrection of Christ took place - all excuses were nullified. Today, on this side of the cross, on this side of the resurrection, on this side of the Words of Christ - we are without excuse.

We can clearly see what was said about those men. We can clearly see what the testimony was. We are to live like them. We are to understand what they understood. We are to follow the Lordship of Christ as outlined in the Words of Scripture. He is King. His Kingdom is now. He has a Government. He has a nation. He is calling us out. He is calling us into - and we are to follow Him and follow Him exclusively. Verse 9 [9] I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

Please let this sink in. He says He prays for those of His who left the sheepfold to follow Him. He is not praying for those who refused to leave the sheepfold of the world.

[9] I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

[10] And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

[11] And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world,

Alright, now. Let's do some thinking. Let's do some reasoning. Is He contradicting everything in said in verse 9 with what He's saying in verse 11? Of course not. Did He call them out of the world - but actually leave them in the world? No. I believe it's not that difficult. I believe He's talking about the fact that in a short time from then, He was going to be taken up in the clouds to be with His Father, but His disciples, His people, those to whom He manifested all things - were going to be left to begin carrying out the Will of God in heaven on earth - as it is in heaven. These men that had this glorious manifestation of the Father's Name - His Authority - His Power - revealed to them - were going to carry this Gospel, this Good News, by example - by the way in which they lived their lives from that point forward - they were going to demonstrate to the rest of Creation that the world they had created for themselves was in desperate need of being turned right side up and every knee was to bow, and every tongue was to confess to the Glory of God - that this Jesus, Whom you slew and hung on a tree, God hath made Him both Lord and Christ.

Jesus, Yeshua, was physically leaving earth. But they, His followers, were staying behind to continue His administering of the Kingdom. Verse 11, again, [11] And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

[12] While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

Clearly, He was not with them in the sheepfold. He had taken His sheep out of the sheepfold of the world - as in the "orderly arrangement" of the way the world operates. He's talking about being physically present with them on earth. He's not talking about being a participant with the world. "Whosoever therefore is a friend of the world, is the enemy of God." James 4:4. Because "churchianity" does not see this and does not understand it - they make the book filled with contradictions. It's no wonder the world looks at it's quote "church" and says, "It doesn't have an answer to the coronavirus." Oh what a condemnation! If it weren't for the fact that I know that the world is talking about "churchianity" it would be painful to have read the title of that article.

I've been preaching the answer to the coronavirus for over 35 years. Ted's been preaching the answer to the coronavirus for that long - but because straight is the gate and narrow is the way, few there have been that found it. Doesn't have to be that way. Each and every one of us can bring people to the truth of what the Name of Christ really means. God is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to the knowledge of the truth.

I believe that the harvest field is ripe unto harvest. There are people out there sincerely seeking truth, sincerely seeking the King and His Kingdom. We must be the voice of God. Voices crying in the wilderness. The disciples turned their world upside down in a relatively short period of time - Yahweh can use us too - if we will allow it. Verse 13.

[13] And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

Again, now, think about it. He's simply talking about existence on the earth. He is not talking about friendship or partnership with the world's systems.

[14] I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

That proves it. He's not contradicting Himself every other verse - He's talking about simply living on the earth - outside the sheepfold of the world - and He's talking about the sheepfold, too.

[15] I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

I'm not asking you to take them to heaven right now. I'm asking you to protect them from the evil ones who would try to force them back into the world's sheepfold. I'm not asking you to take them to heaven to escape the world, I'm asking for protection because the evil ones are jealous, they are angry with anyone who dares live outside their world. Anyone who dares live by following the True Shepherd/King.

[16] They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

No where does Christ say His sheep are supposed to be in the sheepfold, just not of the sheepfold. The only thing He is saying is that His sheep are not in the sheepfold. They can't even function inside that sheepfold. There are strange voices inside there. They are terribly confused when they try to follow the King's voice, but all they hear are the voices of strangers, the voices of robbers and thieves and despots, and of course, wolves in sheep's clothing.

[17] Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

[18] As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

His sheep are sent into the earth - "preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth." They are not sent to act like the sheep in the world. They are not to be like the sheep of the world. They are to preach to the sheep that are in the sheep fold. They are to lead them to the True Shepherd/King Who calls His sheep OUT of the sheepfold - but they are not to be participating in the systems created by the thieves and robbers that are leading the sheep inside the sheepfold that is the world.

[19] And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

There it is again. Sanctified, hageeadzo - to make holy, purify, consecrate, mentally to venerate, hallow, be holy, sanctify. Webster's 1828 says:

SANC'TIFIED, pp. [.] 1. Made holy; consecrated; set apart for sacred services. [.] 2. Affectedly holy.

Yahweh is a spirit, they that worship Him, MUST worship Him in spirit and in truth. Strange fire. The ignorant worship of God - Acts 17:22

Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

[23] For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

[24] God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth,
seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth,
seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth,

dwelleth not in temples made with hands;
dwelleth not in temples made with hands;
dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

[25] Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

[26] And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

Don't misunderstand one blood of all nations - as so many do - there are bounds of habitation. Still today. In the New Covenant world - there are bounds of habitation. You can't just be with whoever you want to be with. You can't just do whatever you want to do. The Laws of God are in effect and they establish bounds of habitation.

But, He has demanded all men, all blood, everywhere, all nations as in families, those sharing the same skin color, the same dialects - He has commanded all of them - to obey the Laws of the Creator of the World and all that's in it.

Verse 27;

[27] That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

[28] For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

[29] Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

[30] And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

[31] Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

I'm telling you that ignorant worship of God is no excuse in the New Covenant world. We don't understand the prophecies were all fulfilled in Christ in the first century? We don't understand that the King and His Kingdom were fully implemented in the first century? We were never taught that Christians, followers of Christ are to be exclusive citizens of the commonwealth of Israel? We we never taught that it is the ultimate rebellion of men to take to themselves the power to define good and evil - then make quote "laws" to force people to obey their definitions?

There was a time where God excused the ignorance of men. But no longer. Those days are over. How could the ignorant worship of God still be today - when we have His Word today? In the first century - those who were without excuse - didn't have as much to go by as we do today.

If we had spent as much time studying the Word as we have spent chasing U.S. dollars - we would quite possibly not be so affected by the ignorant worship of God today.

I've told you this before, I was a kid, when I had the truth revealed to me concerning the word "church." I had barely 4 years of Bible college and only a few years of ministry before I came to that truth. I know men who claim to be students of the Word of God for 50, 60, 70 years and have never studied the word ecclesia to see that it should never be translated as the English word "church." I'm not saying I'm anything special - I'm not. I'm a filthy sinner saved by grace like the rest - there is no excuse for someone to claim to be a Bible teacher - a Bible scholar - or what have you - and not know something as simple as what the Bible teaches concerning ecclesia. That's inexcusable.

The whole purpose of creation was so that the ecclesia of God would be revealed to mankind in the first century. And those who claim to handle the Word of God do not know enough of the mind of God to know that He was not building temples made with hands when He told Peter that on the saving faith produced by the knowledge that Jesus, Yeshua was truly the Son of God - His Kingdom would be built. Through His Kingdom and the people that make it up, the world would know that Yahweh's Laws are the source of everything good that He wants for His Creation.

Instead, we now have something called quote "church" who would have every man believe that Yahweh has done away with His Laws and now commands all men everywhere to submit to man and whatever man determines to be right and wrong, good and evil. Little children many times know more about the Bible and the Plan and Will of God than most quote "churchmen" who claim to have been preaching the Word for many years.

The world - and especially the U.S. is filled with the ignorant worship of God today. And just like it was in Paul's day, the ignorant worship of God does not produce saving, sanctifying faith built on truth. Back to John 17, verse 20.

[20] Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

There you go. Want to find people like you and me in Scripture? Here it is. Here we are. And look at it now - we are included in the same exact prayer that Jesus was having for His followers in the first century. Verse 21.

[21] That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

[22] And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

[23] I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

I want to stop here for just a second. That they all may be one. As thou, Father art in me. Many of you out there who claim the name of Christ - and remember - what is name? It's Authority. It's His Power, many of you out there who claim the name of Christ are married - and when you got married - you went to the godless state to get a quote "marriage license." You need to hear me. You need to hear the Words of Christ today.

That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us:

That quote marriage license, and I have told you this before, and I have shown you proof of it before, that marriage license created a partnership and that partnership was not with the Father like Jesus is describing here. That marriage license created a partnership with the state and it has joined the body of Christ to infidels and God haters. If we would have understood this perfect oneness with Christ and the Father - many would have never done that. I'm telling you - that document is evil. It was following the voice of strangers who wanted to prevent you from following the True Shepherd. And I will encourage those of you who made that mistake to take necessary steps to remedy that situation.

Before I got attacked by the state, I used to think, oh, those mistakes that people made in the past were forgiven by God and that's all that matters. That is absolutely true - that God forgives - but I have changed my tune on this. I absolutely believe that we need to take the steps to remedy our sin before men and loose ourselves from those chains they have bound us with. Whether we knew or it not. We need to throw off their chains.

[24] Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

[25] O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

Let's stop again. He's constantly talking about different worlds here. Even though it's the same Greek world throughout, he's still talking about different worlds. The foundation of the world is talking about God's Creation and at that time He looked at what They had done and He called it Good. Let's make sure we are seeing this today.

[26] And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Back to verse 14. Because now we have seen that this prayer includes those of us who have come later, those of us who have obeyed the truth preached by His disciples.

Clearly now, He is talking about the orderly arrangement that refuses to obey God. We are not to be in this world. We are not to be OF this world. The people in that world speak such a different language than we do - that we should not even be able to understand them. We are not in or of that world.

We very well may begin to see this in ways we have never seen before as we are still living on this earth.

The other day my wife went to the store. And she said that most, almost everyone in the store was wearing a mask. But she was not. My wife was not wearing a mask. She felt like she was a target because she was not wearing a mask. She's not sick. She's not going to spread something that she does not have.

I might add here that there is some discussion that viruses are not spread anyway. I've tried to educate myself on this and am having some trouble wrapping my head around it. I don't have a problem believing what I'm reading. I just can't speak intelligently about it - so I won't at this point.

But I know this, if you are not asymptomatic - you aren't sick - and if you could spread something to someone else - you aren't going to spread something if you aren't sick. That's ridiculous. I absolutely believe that's part of the psyop.

For the true follower of Christ - the one who has had the Will of God manifested to him - he is not going to listen to the strange voices that are going to continue to put wild constraints and demands on the rest of the people. The true follower of Christ is not going to take their vaccinations. He's not going to take their implants, their digital certificates.

All those things are strange. They are demands that violate the Laws of God. They are things that are trying to lead the sheep of Christ's astray. And I'm going to promise you that the world is going to hate us because of this. Because of our refusal to participate.

Sadly, in a way, we need to share some of this blame. I believe we have not distanced ourselves from "churchianity." We have not shown that Christianity DOES indeed, have an answer for the corona virus - whether real or imaginary - and you know that I believe it's imaginary. We have not distanced ourselves from the truth and a lie because we have friends and loved ones that are still in the lie of "churchianity" and we have chosen silence over rocking the boat - or hurting someone's feelings.

Well, friends, when did the boat stop rocking? The boat was on the verge of sinking, death was knocking on the door, the passengers on the boat were terrified. The waves were crashing, the winds were blowing. The ship was going down. I think it's interesting that they didn't go rushing to the captain of the ship. They didn't even signal an SOS. But the Scriptures say they went down into the boughs of the ship to find Jesus. What a great example. They didn't call the Coast Guard for help. They didn't call a president. They didn't call the fake "powers that be." They went down into the boughs of the ship to make contact with the Power that is.

They called on the One Who had power over all flesh. They knew Who to turn to in their time of trouble. No one else was going to save them.

Friends, the boat stopped rocking when the Master spoke. If we have any intentions of ever seeing the boat stop rocking, we have to be the voice of the Master. He didn't pray that we would be removed from the world - that would be the easiest way out - He prayed that we would obey His voice and compel men and women - without shame - without apology - without hesitation to hearken to the voice of the Master. "Be still and know that I am God. And besides me there is no other."

We serve the King of kings, the Shepherd of all shepherds, the One Who has power over ALL FLESH. Do we believe this? We must be the mouthpiece, we must be the vessel whereby the voice of God is revealed to a lost world.

I'm not talking about preaching to those that hate us. How about those that claim to love us - but are still in the world? Do we share with them the truths found in Christ? Do we declare to them that the God they ignorantly worship demands more today? The ignorant worship of God does not produce saving faith. It isn't good enough. We're not talking about works. We're not talking about good works. None of us can produce that within us. But we're talking about believing the truth. That is required. And how will people hear the truth if we are not the voice of God?

We are in a time now - possibly more today than I've ever seen in my life - that most men - the majority of men and especially the women - believe that government is God and that the only chance they have for survival is for their government/god to pass more laws, take away more freedoms, do whatever they want to do for the sake of saving their cowardly flesh.

Those that are living in fear today are the ones who clearly believe that their government/god is their saviour. God Send Us Men today who will stand in this hour and call down this ridiculous operation for what it is. When they are no longer able to produce more dead bodies and their jig is up - rest assured that the sheeple in the sheepfold are going to demand of their gods to take away ever more freedom under the guise of preventing such a thing to ever happen again.

But on the whole armour of God so that we can stand in this evil hour. I have prayed for so long to see more men willing to stand. I wish it would have come a different way, but if this is what it takes, then so be it.

If you've listened to me preach, you've heard many times before that God is going to have His people. And they could be had the easier way - or the hard way - but it's going to happen.

I told my oldest son the other day - remember - I have told you for years and years - it's all my children have ever heard - that the U.S. - on its present course is not sustainable. I said that in 2015, when the U.S. officially declared sodomite marriages to be the legal quote "law of the land" - that this was as far away from God as a nation could be.

Now that we are seeing total collapse, it's almost surreal. I've wondered what it would look like. Funny thing is, I never really thought it would be a fake quote "virus."

The other day, Teresa showed me a notice put out by an acquaintance of ours that runs a business. They have a snack bar inside their business. They said by "Order of the Health Department, we can no longer sell our snacks." Then, the note said, "We will also no longer be taking cash. Only plastic." I wondered out loud to Teresa if that order also came from the health department. My suspicion is that it is.

I immediately sent an email to this acquaintance and told her that they were claiming just a few weeks ago that the quote "virus" could live on plastic 12 times longer than it could live on paper. So, according to their own words from just a couple weeks ago - cash - though the virus could live on it for four hours supposedly - was way safer than plastic - which the virus could live on for up to 48 hours.

And, of course, for the follower of Christ, we should be reminded when they talk about their currency, that no virus is capable of sustaining life on God's money - gold and silver.

So, if there is such a thing as a virus that can be transmitted by people, or objects, or what have you - if we all had access to gold and silver money - like God said - they would not be able to blame transmission on the currency. As I say this, I hope that maybe someone would say, "Well what about the Spanish flu?" Back in 1918 weren't those people mainly using gold and silver coins?" Well, I don't know. Wasn't there something call the Federal Reserve Act that passed in 1914? Didn't the Federal Reserve Act come with paper money? Didn't they say that quote "viruses" can live on paper for up to four hours?

I don't know. But I do not that when Jehoiakim taxed the people and he took their gold and silver away and gave it to Pharoah-Necoh, the written Word says, "And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh." God knows what He's doing. When He said use gold and silver, just weight and balances for your trade - He knew what He was doing. There's reasons, good reasons, behind everything He does. Ours is not to question why, it's just to obey - even if we don't know why.

Christians have an answer. You better believe it. If you are sick, first of all, make sure you have never left off of serving the Laws of God. Of course, not all sickness comes from leaving the Laws of God. So, if you are following the Laws of God and you still got sick, look closely at your habits, your environment. Are you taking any liberties that the Scripture does not allow for? And of course, if you are sick, you stay home. You stay away from others. You might consider fasting. Make sure you are getting plenty of sunshine. Make sure your bare feet make contact with God's soil while you are soaking up the healing rays of God's sonshine.

Teresa and I raised five children, our oldest is 29 years old. Only one of those children had ever been to an medical doctor - and even though that guy had MD behind his name - he claimed to be a naturopath as opposed to an MD. So, five children, over 90 years of life between them and only one of them had ever been to a doctor. How does that happen? Our children never had Coke. They never went to McDonald's. Their mother made them homemade, wholesome meals with good ingredients. They drank good clean water, hardly ever from the city. If they ever had city water, we always put fresh, lemons in the water. They never had a vaccination. They never had a shot or an injection of any kind - ever.

In the times that the children did get sicknesses, colds, etc., they were treated with herbs. Most kids are injected over and over and over. They go to doctors, they take antibiotics. And they still get sick. I'm not a physician. My wife is not a physician. But our family was not sickly and our children did not require doctor visits everytime we turned around. I have to think we did something right. To the best we could, to the best of our understanding and knowledge, we tried to treat illnesses Biblically.

We tried to learn from people who at least claimed to get their health knowledge from Biblical sources. The Bible teaches about the herbs of the field. The Bible teaches about the benefits of healthy water and cleanliness. We tried to only listen to voices that we felt were coming from the Word of God. Agree, disagree, whatever, over 90 years of health speaks for something. The world can't say that.

Our children were all born at home. They were born with the service of midwives. They were not sent off to government schools - whether public or private - and by government schools I mean "church" schools, also. They were taught the Bible at home. They were not numbered by a godless state. I believe they had a solid Biblical foundation.

And last, I think more importantly than everything, we did not listen to strange voices. We did not listen to anyone that was promising a saviour or a healer that was not Christ the Lord.
