

Message# 346_7-13-2025 – Possessed by Evil Spirits

Preached first on 7/13/2025

Good morning everyone. Thank you for tuning into the message this morning.

Please remember those who are on the Prayer Request page on the website. I do know that Doug is starting a program with Larry Blanchard. I reported that last week but I think I was a little premature with that report last week. But I think it has started now. Pray that Larry will have some good ideas that will help Doug overcome the seizures that he's been dealing with. If you are having any health issues that you cannot solve - give Larry a call. He has a free 20 minute telephone consultation. You can find his website linked on the Links page. His contact information is on there.

I was pleased last week to have received positive comments from those of you who understand that the Babylonian originating system of insurance which has basically taken over the whole world now - has been an absolute destroyer of civilizations. It is an economic wrecking crew. It's one of the reasons why things are sky-high in costs. The world claims its origins to be from Babylon - but I say its origins are the Garden of Eden. It was designed by satan, by the devil, by the old serpent to make people choose between God and man. Just like the old serpent said to Eve, "Did God really say?" The serpent was offering Eve a choice - God's way or man's way.

That's the simple message that I've been trying to preach for a long long time. The Bible and its message is simple - should be simple. It's about helping people decide between two simple choices - God's way or man's way. It's about God's Government or man's "government." It's a Book about being the people of God - Israel - the Commonwealth of Israel - or being citizens of the kingdoms of the world - and very few people get it. I think very few people actually even think about it.

This week, I posted a photo on the Funny Pages of the website. It's a picture of Washington D.C. with what they call the white house - which should be called the black house, the dark house, the seat of Satan - in the foreground - surrounded by some of the other majestic looking buildings there - and over the top of the picture - I put Matthew 4:8-10

Again, the devil taketh Him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth Him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

[9] And saith unto Him, All these things will I give Thee, if Thou wilt fall down and worship me.

[10] Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.

All the huge, majestic buildings. The marble floors and walls. The fantastic artwork and pomp and galla of it all. Their huge naval fleets, their unbelievable fighter jets and all the majesty of it all. And then, how they all go back and forth calling each other wicked and evil and corrupt. When the democrats are in power, the republicans are always talking about how evil the democrats are. And when the republicans are in power, the democrats talk about how evil the republicans are. Hilarious. When these new people were conning the naive americans into thinking they could vote for them - they talked about "The Epstein files" and Trump even said how that Bill Clinton should be very worried. Dan Bongino talked on and on on his talk show about "The Epstein Files" and the coverups and all the corruption and the evil people involved. Kash Patel, same thing. Pam Bondi, same thing. "All these evil, evil people, heads were going to roll." AT least good for Bongino on acting like he's upset about it. Unless that's just part of the show. Who knows?

Then, funny thing, all of a sudden now - it's case closed - nothing to see here - "With the u.s. bombing Iran, a hundred people dying in Texas floods, and you people have the nerve to bring up Epstein, what's wrong with you?" I guess they haven't manufactured enough distraction to make people move on from Epstein. Amazing how that's working out.

So all the politicians from both sides - now this third guy - Musk - who was Trump's main guy a few weeks ago - now he's the evil genius - all of them talk about how corrupt they all are. All this majesty - and all this evil. And yet hardly anyone looks at all this garbage and is able to tie it all together with Matthew chapter 4. Friends, there's only one way this can happen - and that is because people are insane. Their minds are not rational, they aren't sane. Any sane, rational thinking individual should be able to see all the corruption along with all the majesty and say, "Hmm, is this the same thing that Christ was talking about in Matthew chapter 4?" But why? Why not? Why do so few people get it?

Insane? It started with Trump. Continued with Biden. We are going to just create out of thin air, then give all u.s. citizens - just give the citizens - free money. Gonna send you a check with my signature on it - Trump's signature. Going to give billions to businesses - just create out of thin air and send businesses billions of stimulus checks (because of all the Covid-lie) - all this extra “money” for free - and then - the people - it's the people - not the “government” types - they knew exactly what it would cause - but the people - because they are insane - they cannot think sanely - they scratch their heads and say, “Wow, what happened to prices at the grocery store?”

I like to drink Mott's Apple juice. Used to buy it from the Dollar Store for 3.75 just a couple years ago. Today, that exact same bottle of apple juice is just under 7.00. In just a couple years, almost double? That's what the “stimulus” checks did for the american people. That's what exorbitant prices that insurance agencies pay for the most trivial things. These should be simple concepts - but people don't get it because they do not have the ability to think rationally - sanely. And, of course, because they do not know their Bibles. They do not know the Will of God and how He wants things to function.

There's another photo that I put up this week. It's the same “church” that had the u.s. flag flying directly above a cross that was supposed to represent the execution of Christ. They had a u.s. flag flying directly over the cross. Just like the u.s. soldiers hoisting the u.s. flag at Iwo jima. That's what conquerors do. They raise their flag over the ones they conquered. “Churches” raising the u.s. flag over what they mistakenly believe is a conquered Christ. This time, they have their u.s. flag back up flying over top of what they call their “Christian” flag. Which is not Christian, not at all. It is churchian. It is the churchian flag. But to them, it's “christian.” But it is flying below the u.s. flag. The u.s. flag flies above their christ. And next to this flag display, is a sign that reads: “God Please Bless America”. I took that picture, I took a picture of this and emailed it to them. I was actually kind. I don't think Christ would have been. I think he would have been furious - but I was kind - at least in my email. And I asked them how, if they were the representatives of God, of Christ, if the representatives of God have God lower than their “country” how do they think God would bless that? I knew they wouldn't respond. And of course they didn't.

I've been shaking my head at these “churches” for pretty much my entire adult life as to how they can fly the u.s. flag above the supposed “christian” flag. I've asked I don't know how many of them the same question. And it's like looking into a completely blank face. They have no idea what I'm even talking about.

There's an explanation for it. And it is that they are not thinking sanely. They are not thinking rationally. Most “churches” love to talk about the corruption. They love to talk about the evil politicians (except Trump) - but they can't seem to understand that they are seeing the kingdoms of the world in action. This is exactly what Christ was talking about in Matthew 4 and His rejection of the kingdoms of the world is exactly what we are supposed to be doing.

Another observation from this week. Teresa and I are going to try and film this and have it available for you. When I was going through the Creation series - and pleading with people - begging people to reject the scientists, reject those who are mocking the Bible - and the clear truth is - the mockers, the scientists - the ones who hate the Bible, who hate Christ, who hate God, who hate the Genesis account of Creation - are the ones who promote the "globe". In my series, I made the statement, for those who think they can look at the sky and understand God's World because of what they see in the sky - which friends - and I'm not being unkind like I would be to the "churches" - I'm being gentle here - to look at the sky and think that tells you the shape of the world - or how the world operates - that's just so odd. You don't look at the lights in your ceiling - "Oh, my light bulbs are round, therefore my floor must be round." That's not the way to think.

To look at the sky - I have friends, loved ones, who demand a "globe" because of eclipses - okay - are you factoring in what the Bible says about the firmament when you are making your conclusions about the earth - based on what you see in the sky? And I know the answer, the answer is no. They are not factoring in the firmament. They can't be. The biggest reason is - I don't believe we have enough information in our Bibles - and maybe God planned it that way - we don't have enough information given to us to fully understand the firmament. What we do know is that it is firm, like molten glass. And we know that there are waters above it. And we know that it is stretched out across the sky. It's a vaulted dome, it's like a tent.

In the video that Teresa and I want to make for you. I put a piece of paper on the wall. It would do exactly the same thing if I taped it to the ceiling. There are arrows on the paper. They point to the left. But, when you place a glass of water in front of the exact same arrows - all of a sudden - those arrows are now pointing to the right when you look at them through the glass of water. My point being this, again. If you are not factoring in God's Firmament when you look at the sky - you cannot trust your own eyes to tell your brain what you are actually seeing. To say that all of the Bible verses about God's Creation do not mean what they clearly say - because you look in the sky to get your information about the ground - unless you are factoring in the firmament - you don't know what you are really seeing.

The sun is a great light. The moon is a great light. The stars are lesser lights. They are not thousands of times bigger than the sun and the moon. They can't be - because God's Word says they are lesser lights.

The scientists, the anti-Christ's have derived all of this wild, crazy stuff about worlds and universes and galaxies and black holes and space travel, time travel, light-years - all of that - for the purpose of making people doubt the Genesis account of Creation. The simple, God Created - in seven days - the Genesis account of Creation. And the end game is working exactly the way the devil schemed it - and that is for the elimination of the Law of God - replaced with the laws of men. And friends, if you don't believe that's what has happened - I just don't know what else could be said. We live in a world where hardly anyone believes in the Law of God.

We live in a world dominated with man's "laws." Millions and millions of them. Just before I started work on this message, I saw a headline that said this:

<https://www.npr.org/2025/03/12/nx-s1-5324544/crown-act-reintroduced-2025>

Politics

Congress reignites a bipartisan effort to ban hair discrimination

A bipartisan effort to ban hair discrimination has been reintroduced in Congress as the Trump administration targets diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives.

The latest bill, known as the "Creating a Respectful and Open World for Natural Hair Act of 2025" or the "CROWN Act of 2025," was introduced in the House last month. If enacted, it would ban discrimination against individuals based on their hairstyle or hair texture due to their race. This includes styles in which hair is "tightly coiled or tightly curled, locs, cornrows, twists, braids, Bantu knots, and Afros." End quote. (Laughing)

Epstein and all of his fellow demons - forget about all that - "Are you still talking about that?" - forget that - let's make some laws about people's hair. Those are minds that are demon possessed, crazy, insane, nuts.

We live in a world where men and women live, 24 hours a day, to come up with more and more and more "laws, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations" and there's not a man in a million that stands up and says, "Enough's enough, count me out."

I'm telling you, friends, demon possession, to be possessed with devils - refers to the minds of men who prefer the kingdoms of men, the kingdoms of the world - over the Kingdom, the Government of God.

Turn to Mark chapter 3 and let's get a good look at this. Read beginning with verse 1. I'm telling you - again - man's purpose is to live according to the Will of God. That's what the struggle is. That's what the fight is. It's about demons and devils and satans trying to make people follow them - and leave the God of Israel. The demon possessed mind, the mind possessed with devils - is the mind that will not conform to the Kingdom of God. It's the mind that will not conform to the perfect Will of God. Verse 1.

[1] And He entered again (Christ) into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

[2] And they watched Him, whether He would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse Him.

The Greek word for watched here is interesting. It means to watch insidiously. It is watching for an evil purpose, a harmful purpose. It's just waiting, just hoping that someone is going to do something so they can bring some harm to the one they are watching. They were hoping Christ would heal someone on the sabbath so that they could accuse Him of doing something bad. Of "breaking the law."

[3] And He saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

[4] And He saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

[5] And when He had looked round about on them with anger, (remember I said Christ would be angry at what He saw at the "church") being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, He saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

[6] And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians (the "government") against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Really? They wanted to murder Christ because He had just healed a man? I'm telling you no. I do not believe that's why they wanted to kill Christ. They went to man's "government" to try to murder Christ because Christ was - in everything He did - trying to call people out of men's "governments" out of the "laws of men" and into the Government of God.

Is it lawful?

That's the first thing Christ said to them. This is what I've been trying to get people to see for so long. It's about Law. It's about the Law of God - Christ being the Most Perfect example of One Who kept the Law of God - versus those who represent the "laws" of the kingdoms of men. As soon as Christ did what He did, the Pharisees, the "churchmen" of the day - called the cops. They went to the local D.A. They went to the police department to file a complaint against Christ. Verse 7.

[7] But Jesus withdrew Himself with His disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judaea,

[8] And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things He did, came unto Him.

[9] And He spake to His disciples, that a small ship should wait on Him because of the multitude, lest they should throng Him.

[10] For He had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon Him for to touch Him, as many as had plagues.

Indeed Christ healed the sick. He healed those inflicted with physical infirmities. He healed blindness, cured leprosy, made the lame walk. And, verse 11:

[11] And unclean spirits, when they saw Him, fell down before Him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

In addition to healing physical ailments - He also dealt with unclean spirits. Let's look at what is meant here by unclean spirits.

The unclean spirits fell down before Christ and said, "Thou art the Son of God." When you come into the presence of the King, you fall down, you bow down. And that is exactly what they did. This is a matter of meeting the Leader of the Government of God.

[12] And He straitly charged them that they should not make Him known.

[13] And He goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto Him whom He would: and they came unto Him.

[14] And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach,

[15] And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

Notice again - to heal sickness - and to cast out devils.

[16] And Simon He surnamed Peter;

[17] And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and He surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:

[18] And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, [19] And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed Him: and they went into an house.

[20] And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

[21] And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on Him: for they said, He is beside Himself.

[22] And the scribes (the lawyers) which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth He out devils.

I'm telling you now, this is about Christ calling people out of the kingdoms of the world and into the Government of God. That's what casting out unclean spirits is. Those who refused the Government of God, those who refused the Law of God, those who refused the Kingship of Christ - are described as those who have unclean spirits.

The lawyers are saying, "Christ is calling people out of our government and He does this by the prince of devils." They are saying that Christ was exactly the opposite of what and Who He was. They were saying that Christ calling people out of the kingdoms of the world - was devils calling people out of the kingdoms of the world. It wasn't God calling people out. It wasn't God Who demands people come out of the kingdoms of men - it is devils who call people out. They had it 100% wrong. And Jesus is getting ready to clear it up.

[23] And He called them unto Him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

How can Satan - the one who is over the kingdoms of the world - cast people out of his kingdom, out of his kingdom, out of his 'government'?" Christ is saying, "Not so. Satan would never want people to leave his kingdom. Satan would never cast his own out of his kingdom."

[24] And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

[25] And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

He's talking about the kingdom of Satan. He's talking about the kingdoms of the world. He's talking about dividing the kingdom of Satan.

[26] And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

[27] No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

[28] Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

Christ is saying by the power of the God of the Bible, by the power of His Father - He was drawing people out of the kingdoms of men - out of the kingdoms over which Satan had control. Satan wasn't going to divide his own kingdom. Satan wasn't going to cast his own followers out. It was by the power of God, by the power of His Father that Christ was dividing the kingdom of Satan. Christ was dividing the kingdom of Satan. Christ was dividing the kingdoms of the world by cleansing the unclean spirits of men. Men who believed in the kingdoms of the world - were following Satan and his kingdom. That is the unclean mind. The unclean mind is the follower of the kingdoms of the world - the kingdoms that are controlled by Satan - and Christ was dividing that kingdom. He was cleansing the unclean mind and restoring people's minds to sanity. To rational thought. To the belief in the One True Government of God.

Christ was spoiling the house of Satan by calling people out of it. By cleansing the mind possessed with evil spirits - Christ was dividing, spoiling the house of Satan - the kingdoms of the world. So clearly defined in Matthew chapter 4.

Go back to verse 28:

[28] Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

[29] But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

[30] Because they said, He (Christ) hath an unclean spirit.

They were saying that it was Christ Who had the unclean spirit. Christ was the One calling people out of the kingdom of Satan. And these people were saying that Christ was the evil One. Christ was the One possessed by devils. Christ was unclean because He was calling people back to the Government of God. Christ is saying that if people do that - if people call Christ a devil because He was rescuing people from the kingdoms of the world - Christ said they were in danger of never being forgiven.

Israel was divided. Christ was calling people back to the Government of God, back to the Laws of His Father. Just like every other prophet in the Old Covenant world. Every prophet called Israel back to the God of Abraham. Christ was trying to reunite Israel with His Father. But the kingdoms of the world had gained a massive foothold. Christ was dividing that foothold. Christ was dividing and conquering. Christ was calling people out of the kingdoms of the world - out of the kingdom of satans - and into the Government of God. And those insane minds, those with unclean spirits - were saying that Christ was a devil because He was dividing the kingdom of Satan.

Verse 31.

[31] There came then His brethren and His mother, and, standing without, sent unto Him, calling Him.

A little sidenote here. This verse of the Bible has bothered me for as long as I can remember. To me, at least the way I see this, and maybe it's not even what it's supposed to be, but it's just always bothered me that Christ's own physical brothers and His Own physical mother - were not there with Him. But were rather standing outside. I wonder if they were embarrassed of him. Did they not want to be seen with him? But, I guess it just reads that way for emphasis concerning the difference between flesh and blood family - and that of the family of God that is joined together by belief. By agreement in the Government of God. Verse 32.

[32] And the multitude sat about Him, and they said unto Him, Behold, Thy mother and Thy brethren without seek for Thee.

[33] And He answered them, saying, Who is My mother, or My brethren?

[34] And He looked round about on them which sat about Him, and said, Behold My mother and My brethren!

[35] For whosoever shall do the Will of God, the same is My brother, and My sister, and mother.

The Christian life, the life of following Christ is, in my opinion, is very simple. It's a choice between following the Will of God - or following the will of man. We see right here in Mark chapter 3 the struggle between the Law of God and the laws of men. We see the struggle between the kingdoms of the world - the kingdoms run by satans - and the Government of God. We see Christ dividing the kingdom of Satan. He is calling people out - that's what it means to divide. It's divide and conquer. That is what Christ was doing.

We see the satans saying that because Christ was dividing the kingdoms of the world - dividing the kingdoms of satan - that Christ was the One possessed by an evil spirit. And today, we would see the same thing. Anyone who would dare call someone out of the kingdoms of men and into the Government of God would be accused of having a devil, of having an evil spirit. But that's not so. It is the exact opposite. Our mission, our example from Christ Himself is to divide the kingdoms of the world - to divide the kingdoms of satans - and call men and women boys and girls into the Government of God.

Cleansing men and women of evil spirits, casting out evil spirits, is to cast out of the minds of people the concept that men's "governments" are ordained of God. An evil spirit is the mind that refuses to yield to the Will of God. The Will of God is that all men and women bow their knees and confess that Christ is Lord.

That all men and all women, boys and girls, come out of the kingdoms of the world, the "governments" of the world. It never ceases to amaze me how people can look at that cesspool of Washington, D.C. and think that this is what God has intended for His Creation. People who call themselves "Christians" look at all that rot and filth and claim it as their own. Friends, all of that is what the Bible means in the narrative of Matthew chapter 4. The kingdoms of the world, the glory and majesty - interesting - the Bible speaks of the glory and the majesty - and Christ rejected it. Other than clearly showing that Satans are the ones controlling them - which should be all the Bible needs to bring to light - that story of Matthew 4 doesn't go into detail concerning the corruption, the filth and all that went on with the Caesar's during that time. The Bible only speaks of the glory of the kingdoms of the world - yet - Christ rejected it all.

The Christian life is a life that rejects the kingdoms of the world. Because, the kingdoms of the world - with all their beauty and glory - behind that veil, behind that mask - is a devil saying, "Did God really say? Did God really say that you are not to make your own laws? Did God really say that you couldn't have your own kingdoms and follow Him?"

The kingdoms of the world have millions of "laws, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations" that directly defy the Will of God - and they do so to make people follow them - and not follow Christ.

Which one for you?

Choose you this day whom you will serve. Either the gods of your fathers on the other side of the Potomac. Or the God of the Bible, the God of Abraham, the God of Moses and Joshua, of Isaiah and Jeremiah.

Render unto Caesar - if Caesar is your god, then render unto Caesar - but if the God of Christ be your God, if the God of John the Washer, of Peter, of James and John, of Paul and Silas and Barnabas - if that God be your God - then follow Him.
